D.C. Civic Center Project Is in High Gear

City Expects to Move Departments Into New Building in Two Years

By RON BATES

WHEN DALY CITY councilmen selected a city hall site at a special meeting last week, they got a project rolling that was almost a year in getting started.

The momentum is picking up now and department heads figure they will be packing up bags and moving into new quarters in a first class concrete building in less than two years.

The site selection was only the first step.

Now, given the green light, City Manager Edward Frank, Finance Director Joseph Arch and City Engineer William Chapman will begin a series of negotiations aimed at a speedy move from their cramped quarters into the new civic center.

A lot by lot appraisal of land at the new site at 90th street and Sullivan avenue is now in progress, according to Arch.

"We've got to find out exactly what it's worth, who owns it and then begin negotiating with them," Arch said.

The city is planning on purchasing the full block between Sullivan and Edgeworth avenues and 90th and 91st streets and 16 lots in the center of a facing block on 90th street.

THE CITY has earmarked $300,000 from the budget to cover a down payment on the purchase of the land.

Once the land is purchased, Frank, Arch and Chapman will begin interviewing and reviewing the work of between 10 to 15 architects. The council will make the final selection on a design for the building.

Chapman said it would then be the architect's turn to interview department heads and city council members to determine various needs, such as space requirements and room shape and sizes.

"Because the city hall is located in a valley, people will be looking down on it," Chapman said. "The architect will have to consider how it will look from above. The city hall will have to have some sort of dome or good-looking roof."

The architect will draw up rough floor plans to show the council and department heads and once everybody is satisfied he will go into details, Chapman said.

Unless the architect has a full staff, he will have to subcontract with mechanical and electrical engineers for the design of utility systems to be used in the building.

BEFORE any more financial steps are taken, however, the city will have to obtain a financial consultant and bond counsel who would assist in forming a nonprofit corporation, Arch said.

The nonprofit corporation would be made up of five interested citizens, not employees of the city, who would, in effect, constitute a dummy corporation.

The city would lease the building from the corporation and at the end of 20 years, the building would belong to the city and the corporation would be dissolved.

The nonprofit corporation method of financing was used by Sonoma county to build a series of much-needed county buildings, Arch said.

Sonoma resorted to this method when a bond issue to finance the buildings failed in five elections to gain a required two-thirds vote.

Included in the lease contract with the city would be a provision that the city could not go into competition with the nonprofit corporation by building another building.

This guarantees that the corporation would not be left with "an empty bag" before 20 years have passed.

ONCE THE dummy corporation is legally set up and final plans and specifications are reviewed by the city engineer, bids would go out for about 45 days.

When the bids are awarded and total cost determined, the city would make arrangements to obtain financing at the lowest possible costs, Arch said.

Arch has made a number of trips to Sacramento to negotiate with the State Retirement system for a loan to finance construction.

Financial aid for erecting the building also may come from the county, according to Arch. City officials have indicated they hope to have county offices, including a court, in the new structure.

According to Frank, a considerable part of the space will be taken up by police facilities, which are now crowded.

With the exception of the fire department and library, all other departments will probably have their main offices in the new building, he said.

Teen Burglary Spree Ended

2 BOYS SEIZED

60 N. County Cases Solved

A two and a half year burglary spree carried on by teen-agers in Daly City, Broadmoor and Pacifica, involving some 60 homes, has been broken up by Daly City and Broadmoor police.

Two youths have been arrested and charged with burglary. Two others have been implicated and are being questioned.

Investigators said the boys operated both independently and stole mostly cash and apparently played hookey from school on some occasions to enter homes.

Authorities said the total amount of money stolen and the number and type of household items taken was under investigation.

One of the two youths arrested, however, turned over $297 to police and three transistor radios he had hidden in his room at home.

After one series of burglaries during summer school vacation this year, parents of the two boys learned of their sons' activities. The boys were reprimanded and the stolen property returned, police said.

One boy, however, continued the burglary spree until last Wednesday when he was arrested by Broadmoor police after two house break-ins had been reported.

Charged with burglary are two Daly City boys, one 14 years old and the other 15 years old, both students at Westmoor High school.

The other youths under investigation are 15 and 17 years old. One lives in Daly City and the other in Broadmoor.

Investigators said the boys had rung doorbells to determine if occupants were home.

If no one answered, they would try to gain entry through unlocked doors or windows.

The first youth arrested, the 14-year-old, was apprehended through a tip provided by a postman who told Broadmoor police Wednesday morning he had seen a boy ringing doorbells on his route.

Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage said a check was made

St. Francis Lounge Gets DC Approval

The Daly City planning commission last week approved a disputed permit for a cocktail lounge in the St. Francis Square shopping center.

Mrs. Roger Murray of 82 San Miguel avenue and Dr. E. A. Wolf, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church, objected to locating a cocktail lounge in a neighborhood shopping center.

They said they felt it would corrupt the morals of children in the area.

The application was made by Ray A. Douglass and associates of San Francisco. Douglass said at the meeting that the lounge would be open from 6 p.m. to 2 a.m. and would have no entertainment.

He pointed out that he must comply with the strict requirements of the Alcoholic Beverage commission.

Government Week Noted

This week has been proclaimed "Local Government Week" by the San Mateo county Board of Supervisors and the City Council of Daly City.

A number of public buildings will be dedicated by the county. A symposium on city-county government problems was held Monday at the Hilton Inn.

COMPLAINTS AIRED

Bus Firm Asked To Make Changes

Northgate Transit Lines has been told its request for a five-cent fare boost may get favorable consideration if it hires a general manager, begins preventive maintenance and eliminates five of its 10 buses.

These were the steps suggested at a three-and-a-half-hour public hearing Thursday in Daly City by transportation engineers of the State Public Utilities commission and the California Highway Patrol before a rate increase should be granted.

The hearing testimony and the recommendation of Chief Examiner Donald B. Jarvis will be forwarded to the Public Utilities commission for action at a future meeting.

Although the city, the Chamber of Commerce and the commission had received numerous complaints, only one resident, Mrs. Clyde Taylor of 198 Crestmoor drive, appeared at the hearing to complain of poor service.

Charles Lucas, president of the owner-operator bus co-operative, said in his plea for the rate increase that the cost of operating the bus lines has gone up while the rates have remained the same since 1955 when bus service was inaugurated.

Over the course of eight years, Northgate has experienced a turnover of about 65 owner-operators, he said, and of the original 16 incorporators only two remain.

He explained that in the operation of the lines, each driver keeps the fares he makes on his run as his wage. Four of the 10

Eight other contestants selected 12 games correctly. They included a Pacifica woman, Mrs. Patrick Harriman of 242 Charing Cross way.

AT PUBLIC HEARING

Bayshore Zoning Draws Full House

A large crowd jammed City Council chambers last Wednesday for a public hearing conducted by the Daly City Planning commission on the over-all zoning of the Bayshore area.

Under a city ordinance, when a previously zoned area is annexed, it comes into the city as unclassified. Most of the property retained the zoning previously determined by the county planning commission — with some exceptions.

The most controversial issue at the hearing was a request from Vincent Leonetti to obtain commercial zoning at MacDonald and Schwerin streets.

The commission recommended a residential zoning be established on the property.

Hartly Appleton, an attorney for Leonetti, said the property, which is adjacent to a fire station, had been given a highway commercial zoning by the county planning commission last year. The zoning is similar to Daly City's commercial zoning, he said.

Mrs. Kenneth Pack of 112 MacDonald street, objected. She said the area around the property is residential and the commercial zoning was established last year without notice being given to residents.

IN PHOTO FINISH

A P-TA Loses in Pacifica

By LOIS McNALLY

P-TA lost in a photo-finish Monday night as parents at Pacifica's Cabrillo elementary school voted 66 to 62 to form an independent parent's school club.

Appointed as a steering committee to set up the organization were: Mrs. Ruth Gauger, Ralph Adams, Mrs. Ruth Braly, William Frye Mrs. Polly O'Connor, Michael Haggerty and Frank Wright, chairman.

Cabrillo school, which opened this fall, serves children from the Linda Mar and Pedro Point areas, plus a group of Fairmont youngsters being transported until a new school in Fairmont is completed next year.

Approximately 300 parents jammed the school's community room Monday night to hear a debate on the relative merits of P-TA versus independent parents' clubs.

Speaking for the independent group idea were Charles Held of the Dillworth home and school club in Cupertino and Robert Gilbert of the Clifford school parents club in Redwood City.

Defending P-TA were Mrs. Roy Cloud, past president of the 17th district P-TA and Al Parodi, president of Crocker-Pershing P-TA in Daly City.

Moderating the session was a former Pacifica councilman, Don Miller.

During a lengthy question and answer period, several parents said they saw little difference between the P-TA and independent groups, which seemed to be organized on the same lines and performing many of the same functions.

Held claimed the Cupertino club was able to arouse more interest and enthusiasm from parents and operate with fewer restrictions.

Mrs. Cloud and Parodi argued for the support of national and state-wide P-TA efforts and the value of attending P-TA conventions.

Held and Gilbert pointed out that funds raised by their clubs have been spent wholly on buying new equipment for their schools.

Parodi called it "a selfish attitude to be interested only in your own child and your own school" and said school equipment should come from the district funds and not be purchased by parents "just because the principal asks for it."

Teacher Groups Argue Over Code

By LOUANNE HEATH

The newly formed American Federation of Teachers and the long-established Jefferson Union High School District Teachers' association collided headon last week over a proposed code of policies and procedures for employe organizations.

The clash occurred during the regular meeting of the Jefferson district board of trustees and was precipitated by the submission of the code by the association, which claims to represent 276 of the district's teachers.

Lew Reese, chairman of the committee which formulated teh proposed code, presented it to the board with the comment that some set policy of establishing the validity to groups purporting to represent employes of the district seems in order since the number of such groups is growing.

"The administration has seen that with the growth of the district, old procedures are no longer usable and the administration has fostered the formation of the teachers council to formalize the channels of communication between the administration and the faculties.

What we are attempting to do in this proposal is to establish formal channels between the faculties and the trustees," Reese said.

James Ballard, representing Local 1481 of the federation, charged that the wording used in the proposal was misleading and implied that legal action would result should the board act favorably on the proposal.

Full House At Hearing

Donald street said any additional property with a commercial use in the area would hamper the fire department's ingress and egress.

Arthur Levin of 2905 Geneva avenue said there is vacant commercial property in Bayshore and no more is needed.

A request for industrial zoning for Pacific Gas and Electric was granted. Commissioners, however, specified that a buffer strip of multiple dwelling zoning be established along Schwerin.

Mrs. Floyd Osterberg of 870 Schwerin said the property is adjacent to a proposed park and that industry should not be next to a park.

Zoning changes in Bayshore that met no objection were:

Former zoning for duplexes in area south of Cow Palace to multiple family dwelling.

Former highway commercial adjacent to the San Francisco county line west of Carter street to commercial.

Former parking zoning between Cow Palace and Carter street to commercial.

DC RESIDENT PLEA

Help Sought to Prevent Erosion

A group of Daly City residents, fearful of their homes sliding into the Pacific ocean, appeared at a city council meeting last week to plead for help.

The spokesman for the group, John J. Murphy, 4 Lynvale court, told councilmen that landslides along the Old Coast highway were endangering homes located above the road.

He said in one case the erosion had come to within one foot of a resident's back yard.

City Engineer William Chapman said the city has been aware of the problem and has been working on obtaining aid from the federal government for the past year.

A solution to the problem, both in Daly City and Pacifica, may be forthcoming in a $109,000 study by the Army Corps of Engineers. City officials were notified of a house committee's allocation of the money early last week. The study would take about a year.

Chapman said the problem began when the state division of highways abandoned the old coast road and stopped maintaining it. The drain basins became clogged with silt and the water, running overland, began to undermine the cliff. A series of small slides has resulted in the present situation.

The Old Coast highway was abandoned when the state constructed the Edgemar freeway and the city has never accepted the old road from the state, Chapman said.

"The reason the state dropped the road was because it was too expensive to maintain," Chapman said. "If the state of California couldn't afford to maintain it, certainly poor little Daly City couldn't."

Councilman Francis Pacelli said he had heard that the old coast highway was the "most expensive road to maintain per mile in the state of California."

Chapman said attempts by Daly City to stop erosion of the road now would be "a great expense."

The council said it would direct Murphy's complaints to the state division of highways and to the San Mateo county department of beaches.

"Regardless of the fight over jurisdiction or fixing the blame," Councilman Bob St. Clair said, "Daly City will be the first one on the spot. We are not going to shirk our responsibilities to these homeowners."

Councilmen took a first-hand look at the situation Thursday afternoon.

Chapman gave a report on another emergency situation on Beechwood drive, caused by rains. Five homes were flooded with about a foot of water during a storm three weeks ago because the storm drains could not handle water collected in depressed areas.

Chapman, after consulting with councilmen individually, ordered a 21-inch storm drain installed immediately. Contractor Dale Williams worked a construction crew around the clock and the drain was installed in less than three days.

Accepted the real property of the Bayshore fire district.

Accepted a $12,000 report on the drainage system in Daly City done by Tronoff Engineers.

Held the first reading of an amendment to an ordinance adding a survivor's benefit program for city employes.

Transit Firm Changes Are Sought Here

drivers own their own bus.

The company maintains an office and drivers' room at 6019 Mission street in Daly City although no employee or representative is regularly assigned there.

This lack of central control was one of the major points cited against the company by Hilton H. Nichols, associate transportation engineer for the Public Utilities commission.

"There is no one in the organization who functions as general manager and can be held responsible for over-all company matters," Nichols said.

He noted letters had been sent to the company regarding safety checks by the commission and by the California Highway Patrol. These letters required immediate answers.

Nothing has been received yet, he said, because no one in the company has the responsibility to reply.

He recommended in his report that the company be required to hire a general manager who would spend a major portion of his time in the office handling company matters and complaints.

The manager should have the authority to discipline and-or withdraw driving privileges of those drivers who do not attempt to maintain their schedules and give courteous service to the public.

Nichols also said the equipment of the company should be upgraded to satisfactory standards of mechanical safety, general appearance and suitability for service with adequate seating capacity and sufficient headroom and aisle space for standing passengers.

Nichol's third recommendation advised that the company institute a vehicle preventative maintenance system that would be strictly followed.

Drivers should be able to perform their own work, but there should be some central location where vehicles could be inspected for safety standards, he said.

E. H. Mattoon, safety superintendent for the Motor Carrier Safety section of the California Highway Patrol, said nine North gate buses were inspected in a safety check October 10.

"Of those nine buses, two were completely without brakes," Mattoon said, "and were ordered to be placed out of commission."

CONDITIONS SET

SSF Approves Dance Permit

South San Francisco councilmen Monday night approved dancing at a Mission road cafe and cocktail lounge, providing certain conditions are met. No more than 12 couples can be allowed on the floor at one time, the dancing area must be limited to 12 x 14 feet, and a path to the rear exit must be kept clear.

The use permit requested by Paul Lunardi for his establishment at 1144 Mission was approved, if he agrees to meet these conditions and those under an existing city ordinance on public dancing.

Councilmen adopted the Lizzio rezoning amendment ordinance, and withheld action on a new law regulating traffic until a map requested by the city attorney can be supplied.

Bids were called for on a suggested improvement of the city hall parking lot which would add 20 spaces at a cost of approximately $6000. The work will include additions to the play area west of the parking lot.

They proclaimed December 2 to 7 "Golden Gate Wing Week" in honor of Air Force Reservists called into action during the Cuban crisis, and declared "Federal Aviation Day," also in December.

A contract with Ecco Phoenix Electric, for $8974 to build traffic signals at Orange and Chestnut avenues on Grand avenue, was approved; Ferrando cement contractor was declared the low bidder on sidewalk construction on Camaritas avenue, at $1453; and Arata Pontiac the low bidder on a city dump truck.

The council declared its intent to participate in widening El Camino Real to a six-lane divided highway between Tanforan racetrack and Arroyo drive, and adopted resolutions permitting negotiating agreements with Southern Pacific for crossing protection devices at East Grand avenue.

Rafferty Discusses Yule Songs

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty Friday night told a Pacific Heights audience that he believed in Christmas carols and Christmas pageants and that he feels they should remain a vital part of the instructonal program.

The school where Rafferty spoke is part of the Laguna Salada school district which in 1961 saw several stormy sessions after it appeared that Christmas carols would be banned. No Christmas pageant in the traditional style has been held there since.

Rafferty had diplomatically avoided both the Christmas issue and that of progressive education, but spoke out on them when asked during a question period.

Rafferty, who has held various school administrative and teaching positions in the past, said that at the time of the question of the legality of carols and pageants came up, he was "in the midst of preparing such a pageant."

"We invited the police chief. We decided that if we were, indeed, illegal, we would all ride off in the Black Maria singing 'Oh Come, All Ye Faithful,'" he said.

"Seriously," he continued, "of course, we need Christmas pageants and carols in our schools.

"And if you are in an area where there is a heavy Jewish population, there should be chants and Hanukah, too."

There is nothing wrong with religion, he said, "in fact, we need religion."

SEATS STOLEN

Gary Carrigan, 200 Park Plaza drive, Daly City, reported to police last week that two bucket seats had been stolen from his auto, parked at Market and Mission streets.

Artist Opens One-Man Show

Award winning artist, Ted Christensen, has started a month long one-man art show in the lounge area of the Friar room at the Serra Bowl.

Christensen, who has had shows throughout the West Coast, has his paintings represented in numerous private collections throughout the country.

Road Delay Blessing to B'nai Israel?

A delay in planning and building a Junipero Serra freeway interchange may be a blessing in disguise for Congregation B'nai Israel in its search for a new temple site in Daly City.

The congregation was supposed to be moved from its temple at 67 Los Banos avenue by the end of November to make way for the $500,000 Knowles street project.

The Board of Supervisors, however, reversed a decision by the County Planning commission to allow the congregation to use a building on Annie street in Colma as aohuse of worship.

City Engineer William Chapman said the city cannot move ahead on the street project until the state releases its plan for the Knowles interchange of the Junipero Serra freeway and begins construction of a detour road.

The state has yet to place the road projects out for bid, Chapman said.

Daly City Mayor Joseph Verducci said yesterday the city would try to let the congregation stay at its temple on Los Banos avenue "as long as possible."

Verducci has met several times with leaders of the congregation and has contacted several landowners in the area in an effort to get the temple relocated.

B'nai Israel congregation president Julius Michaelis said the mayor, the council, and other officials of Daly City have been "most helpful" to the congregation.

Michaelis said the congregation feels that "wrong has been done to us by the board of supervisors."

"We will leave no stone unturned until we are able to build a new temple and Sunday school for our children," Michaelis added.

By DON MILLER

ONE OF the potentially most torrid—and most interesting—issues to develop in the North county this year will be aired for the third time Monday night when the Jefferson Elementary School board sits down again to face a decidedly sensitive decision.

That decision is whether to adopt a policy that would bar transporting pupils from one school area to another to achieve a racial balance among all schools in the district.

Just talking about adopting a policy like this is almost akin to tinkering with a keg of dynamite in view of the racial unrest that has developed in other parts of the country when school boards have taken stands on the question.

By and large, the Jefferson board has been a harmonious team of public servants who rarely have disagreed in adopting policies and procedures.

The current transportation question, however, has evoked one of those rare disagreements and if the first two meetings on the proposed policy can be used as a guide, this upcoming third session should provide another lively evening.

THE ARCHITECT of the proposal is trustee O. Wayne Douglas who has backed it strongly to date.

At the last meeting of the board, he disclosed he has received a number of phone calls on the peoposal. Some of the callers, he said, praised him for his stand.

And he added that it was a heartwarming experience to receive a call from a district resident who thought he was doing a good job.

Trustee Mrs. Katherine Mullen said she also has been the recipient of a flood of calls. Mrs. Mullen is opposed to adopting the policy Douglas has proposed—contending that it would violate state education law.

Board president Thomas Noonan has sided with Douglas while the fourth member of the board (a fifth seat is vacant because of the resignation of Dr. Donald Calvert) Joseph Lewkowitz, has played the role of mediator to date—suggesting that the proposal be given careful study before any action is taken.

Just how long a study is needed is also at issue here. Douglas is firmly against kicking his proposal around too long and wants a decision soon.

Borrowing an old phrase, he said at the last meeting that this is not a decision to be swept under the rug and forgotten.

Whatever the board ultimately decides, the outcome will be greeted with disfavor in some quarters. For of all the issues that face an American today, the racial question seems to be one about which he has some of his strongest opinions.

They are opinions deeply rooted in his background and in his childhood and they are affected by the degree to which he can maintain an open mind.

One interesting aspect of the bus policy proposal is that this is such a touchy issue that the Jefferson board is looking to the community for help.

Trustees at the last meeting agreed they should attempt to gauge the prevailing sentiment in the district by visiting P-TA meetings to gather a cross section of sentiment.

Just what they find out will be brought forth Monday night when round three gets underway. It's probably safe to say that by the time the round is over, the Jefferson district will—or will not—have a new policy on bus transportation.

THE DECISION by Jefferson High school officials to cease playing night football games and to play all basketball games with other Jefferson High School district schools only in the afternoon can be expected to elicit a mixed response.

On one hand, you can probaly hear the cheering right now from the police department, residents living near school sports areas and some merchants.

It's an unfortunate fact that vandalism and teen-age rowdiness have too often marched hand-in-hand with night high school sports events in recent seasons.

This year's Jefferson-South San Francisco game was a glaring example.

On the other hand, you can also probaly hear the groaning from parents whose only opportunity to see their sons in action on the basketball court was at an evening game.

If you subscribe to the tenet that juvenile delinquency reflects a lack of adequate parental control, then the ban on night basketball could be considered, in effect, a spanking administered to negligent parents.

A WELCOME SURPRISE—Pacifica's patient motorists who have been enmeshed in a barrage of detours these past weeks because of construction of the new coast freeway got a surprising—and welcome—bit of news last week.

Completion of the freeway—and thus an end to the detours and the inconveniences—has been forecast for October of 1964—less than a year away.

The prediction was made by Don McCollum of the McNamara corporation, contractor for the freeway, at a Pacifica Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting.

Since the date of completion most often mentioned until now had been sometime in 1965, McCollum's words were greeted by a raft of raised eyebrows and probably more than one silent prayer of thanks.

MORE HEARTENING news of a different nature is being celebrated by Daly City and Pacifica residents whose homes perch along the top of those cliffs than rn along the coast.

Last week, a House committee in Washington gave its approval to the allocation of $114,000 for a U.S. Army Corps of Engineers study of erosion along the coastline in the two cities.

The erosion, if it continues unchecked, could—in time—topple a number of homes right into the Pacific. In fact, the folks who live along Esplanade drive in Pacifica have gloomily and helplessly watched their backyards disappear down the cliffs at the rate of six feet a year.

Perhaps the best example of how destructive erosion can become can be seen near the entrance to Thornton Beach in Daly City.

The old coast road is closed off here and just beyond the barricade you can see a gaping hole where the road once was.

This was the work of erosion—a facet of nature so persistent that the state finally threw in the sponge—on trying to keep the road open and built the Edgemar Freeway to take its place.

Change at the Helm

CONGRATULATIONS were in order for the new president of the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce at an installation of officers dinner Saturday night in the Olympic club. First to offer them to Herbert E. Sharpe, right, the new head man, was Bernard Lycett, outgoing president of the chamber. Other officers installed were David Friedenberg, first vice president; Edward Morgan, second vice president; Walter McRae, recording secretary and William Sweeney Jr., treasurer.

Spring Start In Jeff Work Is Objective

The members of the Jefferson Union High school district board of trustees last week heard district Superintendent Edward D. Morgan express hope that the last stage of consturction at Jefferson High school would begin in the spring of next year.

Morgan announced he hopes to have the plans for the final additions ready to present to the board at its next meeting.

New buildings, to be constructed in an area east of the school cafeteria, will house a room to be used for the education of the mentally retarded, a choral classroom, two electronics laboratories and eight general classrooms, Morgan said.

Food Consultant Speaks at Meet

Mrs. Shirley Sarvis, food writer and consultant for Sunset Magazine, will speak on her recent book "Cooking Scandinavian" at the December 5 meeting of the Friends of the Daly City Library at 10 a.m. in the Westlake library.

Mrs. Sarvis, who toured Scandinavia for new and unusual recipes, has been with Sunset magazine for five years. Her book is being published by Doubleday.

AT WESTMOOR

A New Fa(u)cet For Water Leak

Westmoor High school's persistent hot water leak has begun to display a new facet of its character. Like a petulant child, it either loses water at a staggering rate or it may barely drip—apparently as the mood strikes.

This new light was cast on the hot water problem last week by Jefferson Union High School District Superintendent Edward D. Morgan at a meeting of the district's board of trustees.

In explaining the situation to the board, Morgan said: "The infamous hot water line at Westmoor High school is now playing tricks on us. When we first became aware of this new problem, it appeared that the line was leaking in the area of the Little Theater, the gymnasium and the fine arts classrooms.

"Now we aren't even sure we are dealing with a leak in the line. One 24-hour period we may lose as much as 1000 gallons and during the next 24 hours only 30 gallons. Such a vast fluctuation is not the normal thing in cases of leaks so we may be losing water in some other way—the valves, for example."

A final analysis of the problem will be delayed until Thanksgiving vacation when the entire plant will be closed and tests made to isolate the trouble area, Morgan said.

Helicopter To Be Used By Coast CD

A helicopter is planned for emergency rescue work in Pacifica.

The city's civil defense council has agreed to contract for the use of a helicopter owned by William Ecklund of 360 Seaforth court, Pacifica.

The aircraft will be used for rescuing people from the ocean, removing residents to high ground in case of a tidal wave or transporting them out of the city when roads are blocked.

Ecklund of the B and G Helicopter Service, Half Moon Bay, said that if the service is approved, plans are to build two heliports, one behind the Sea Bowl and one on the ridge between Cuyler's Chevrolet company and the church of the Good Shepherd.

A civil defense drill planned for this fall has been postponed until February when a massive all-city exercise will be held, according to Paul Rushing. Pacifica CD director.

The postponement was decided upon after civil defense volunteers were called out for last month's tidal wave alert.

Two new civil defense officials were named at a council meeting: Mrs. Joan Stumpf will be women's co-ordinator and Stan Farber will be emergency hospital administrator.

Pacifican Is Hurt in Crash

A Pacifica motorist was injured in a two-car collision at Mission street and Hillside boulevard in Daly City early Thursday morning.

Romeo J. Michelucci, 50, of 350 Esplanade, was treated at Kaiser Foundation hospital in South San Francisco for cuts and bruises and transferred to St. Mary's hospital in San Francisco.

Police identified the driver of the other car as Thomas W. Demerritt, 25, of San Francisco.

Ask Ruling On Duties by Pacifica Unit

Pacifica's Park, Beach and Recreation commissioners, standing firm on their recent decision to overrule department heads in cancelling a teenage Hallowe'en dance, are asking city councilmen to define their responsibilities.

Commission chairman Sheila Hyman said that at a joint meeting in June, the council and commission began drafting an outline of the commission's duties and responsibilities but it was never finished.

Commissioners are now asking for another joint meeting in view of questions raised by cancelling the dance.

Recreation department head Eldred Lokker reported earlier he was told by commissioners to cancel the dance when residents in the vicinity of the school where the dance was to be held complained.

Lokker said then it was the first time "to his knowledge" that a commission had overruled a department program.

Mrs. Hyman said commissioners feared for the safety of small children out "trick or treating" if teen-agers were driving through the neighborhood after dark to the dance.

At a commission meeting, the leasing of Pomo Park Recreation center to the Pacifica Cooperative Nursery school was discussed but no decision reached.

A Rescue Is Remembered

Police Chief Neil Tremaine of Pacifica has presented a Red Cross Certificate of Recognition to 12-year-old Leanne Latimer, Menlo Park school girl, for her August 18 rescue of 7-year-old Beverly McKay of Pacifica from San Gregorio creek waters.

Tremaine, a member of the Coastside Region Red Cross water safety committee, cited Leanne's quick-thinking and use of Red Cross life-saving knowledge in making the rescue of the Pacifica youngster last summer.

FOOTBALL'S rising rash of injuries, punctuated by the unusual epidemic of them suffered by the 49ers this year, continues to convince this writer that, paradoxically, injuries will mount in proportion with the safeguards designed to prevent them.

Injuries are not, as is sometimes offered in explanation, more frequent and-or more serious because men are bigger and faster than they ever were. The law of relativity should quickly spike that theory.

Injuries are most frequent because equipment is more protective.

How do we come by such a seemingly absurd observation?

It's an observation you, too, would make if you stopped watching long enough to wonder why there are so few serious injuries in really rough games such as ice hockey, lacross, rugby, and Irish and Australian football—especially when men who engage in these sports wear, compared to the American football player, hardly any protectice equipment at all. And have you ever seen the "bench" of an Irish football team? One substitute.

Easy logic now, isn't it? If hardly protective equipment yields relatively few crippling injuries in contact-sports possibly more "contactier" than American football (in which the players resemble armadillos), then it must be that heavy armour is a detriment.

It's this hard, unyielding equipment that causes injuries more than any other one factor. Imagine a 200-pounder running at you full force and then butting you in the stomach with a hard plastic helmet.

The effect would be something akin to being hit in the breadbasket with a guided missile lacking nothing except the powder to detonate it. Be enough to take the wind out of your sails, wouldn't you say?

Or how about whacking your nose into a hard leather shoulder pad while moving at full speed? And even if your nose is protected by a mask, how about running full tilt and having some guy hook your mask as you go by? Little whiplash there, huh?

It seems to us that if rugby players can get by with shin guards as their only form of protective equipment, then so can football players.

Think hard, now. How many serious injuries did you ever witness or suffer in the old neighborhood tackle games in the empty lot in which the only equipment was a football—soft, at that, because the fat kid who owned it held out on his "pin" and bicycle pump until he was elected captain.

And remember in college football's golden era how fired-up players used to fling their helmets to the sidelines and still managed to survive against the flappy old padding worn by their opponents?

Flesh against flesh, not flesh against plastic or hard rubber and leather, is the answer to safer football.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS: Bruce Hix, Westmoor's quarterback known for his passing statistics, is also probably one of the league's sharpest open-field tacklers . . . also from Westmoor, a remark overheard on the sidelines during a recent game, emanating from one of the Ram coaches: "Go for that passer, go for that passer . . . but make sure he has the ball, first . . ."

Hix notwithstanding, Oceana's Steve McCoughy (pronounced McCoy) is one of the league's top running quarterbacks—and Sharp halfback Tommy Summy, also a fine defensive back, would probably have lead the league in rushing (with aplogies to Westmoor's Dave Mahoney) with the Ram or South City forward wall leading the way for him.

Terra Nova didn't do too much of note, this football season, but it did accomplish something.

Coach Gene McKamey's early-season switch of 5-6 Mike Blagrove (who couldn't spot his receivers, to halfback, and of his top end, 6-3 Marty Coil, to quarterback, produced far-reaching results.

Blagrove ended up as TN's top rusher and one of the league's top pass recievers (Coil could see HIM), and Coil, as of this writing, looks as if he will end up the number two passer in the league behind Hix.

McKamey had precedent for the bold move.

Just last year, then Coach Floyd Gonella took his all-conference guard of the season before, Manuel Pick (Pick had been an end as a sophomore), and shifted him to the quarterback spot amid much criticism. Pick went on to almost beat Hix out of all-league honors and lead the previously lightly regarded Tigers to a second place finish behind the Rams. Gonella, of course was named Coach of the Year.

This switching of supposedly dull linemen to the braintrust spot of quarterback could cause a football revolution should it continue to click and will at least dispell the old stereotypes of linemen.

If nothing else, Gonella and McKamey have at least performed valuable public relations services in behalf of linemen.

Westmoor Gains Two Cage Championships

By BOB BISHOP

Coaches Tony Giammona and Byron Van Alstyne have brought two more basketball championships to Westmoor.

Van Alstyne's 10's went undefeated this year with a record of 10 and 0, winning their last game against El Camino 41-16.

The 20's, with a season's record of 9-1, lost only to Jeff.

In the last games, the Ram 10's defeated Oceana's cagers, 23-14, Jefferson, 32-20 and the Warriors from South San Francisco, 29-15.

Top men in these games as well as throughout the year were Ron Smith, Dan Nolan and Guy Aronson.

While these boys did most of the team's rebounding, they were also the team's three highest scorers.

Dan Nolan, who was an almost sure candidate for all-league honors, was high for the year with 115 points.

Two freshmen starters, Guy Aronson and Ron Smith, scored 95 and 44 points respectively. Two guards who moved the ball around well for the 10's were Mike Giovanetti and Joel Wineberg.

Giammona's 20's won three of their last four games. They defeated Oceana 48-23, South San Francisco 35-25, El Camino 56-29, and lost to the Indians, 41-32.

High point man for the year was senior Bob Rubin with 91. Next scorer was junior Roger Foss with 80.

Third in scoring was junior Steve Sunseri with 70.

With 65 points was the big man and center Tim Corcoran.

Sophomore Ken Liss followed with 58 points.

Westmoor Captures League Title

5-0 LOOP MARK

Rams Slip by Camino, 13-6

Westmoor High school's proud football Rams this week ruled as champions of the North Peninsula league for the second consecutive year.

The Daly City eleven won the title by edging a stubborn El Camino club, 13-6, on the Rams' field Friday afternoon.

The victory gave Westmoor an unblemished league record of five wins and no losses and an 8-1 season mark against all comers. Friday's contest ended the 1963 league season.

The game marked the final appearance in a Westmoor uniform of Coach Pete Matisi's smooth-passing and quick-running quarterback, Bruce Hix.

The senior, however, had one of his poorer days on the gridiron, completing only two of six passes for 17 yards.

Westmoor opened the game as if it was hurrying to catch a train. Ram halfback Paul McHale gathered in the opening kickoff and dashed 88 yards to score.

Fullback Dave Mahoney ran in the point after touchdown.

The two-time North Peninsula league champion Westmoor Rams, after surviving a staunch challenge by the South San Francisco Warriors last week, staved off the second and final threat of the season when they eeked out a 13-6 decision over the third place El Camino Colts in a nip-and-tuck affair at Daly City yesterday.

It was the second straight title year for head coach Pete Matisi's "Green Machine" and also the second grid title in the seven-year history of the Daly City hilltop school.

Matisi's charges, although somewhat sluggish in their farewell to the 1963 NPL campaign have been acclaimed as one of the most explosive prep football, contingents in northern Califorina. They finished with an undefeated 5-0 mark in league play and an 8-1 season total.

Yesterday afternoon's fray marked the final appearance of signal-calling sensation Bruce Hix, a key factor in the Rams' two consecutive championship seasons. Hix, a senior, dazzled crowds throughout his high school career, with his brilliant play calling, ball handling, and passing.

The see-saw battle, with a three-way split for the loop flag or a third place finish for the Colts at stake, developed into a defensive show of strength after El Camino settled down.

The Colt stir was the result of an electrifying 88 yard opening kickoff return by Ram halfback Paul McHale. The sprint took up 20 seconds on the Rams' new scoreboard clock and fullback Dave Mahoney ran in the point after touchdown.

Mahoney's PAT effort, as it turned out, proved to be the decider, but the Rams went for the extra margin in the second quarter when Mahoney banged into the end zone from three yards out. A Hix pass to Mike Morrison fell incomplete on the extra-point try.

TIGERS LOSE

Warriors Win, Take 2nd Place

South San Francisco High school's football Warriors wound up their 1963 season Friday by thumping Terra Nova on their home field, 41-21—thereby giving the Warriors second place in the final standings of the North Peninsula league.

The Warriors' ground offense was in high gear for this one. South San Francisco gained 289 yards on the turf and tallied all of its seven touchdowns via the ground route.

For Terra Nova, the loss was the fifth of the league season for the Tigers, thereby giving Terra Nova the bottom rung in the NPL.

The Warriors struck fast in the season's finale with sophomore fullback Greg Jones capping the opening drive on a one-yard burst off tackle. Sam Pretari booted his first of five point-after trys. The score came with 8:3 in the initial quarter showing on the clock.

That was not the last to be heard from the talented fullback as Jones picked up another six points with 5:38 remaining in the quarter on a 16-yard sprint off tackle. A five-yard jaunt by Jones, again off tackle, accounted for the third score, coming with 8:56 showing on the timepiece in the second period. scoring honors with 7:53 remaining before the end of the half when he raced through a big hole off tackle for 33 yards and the touchdown.

The Warriors began to make use of their reserves throughout the rest of the contest and halfback Tony Mateo got into the scoring act on a one-yard plunge with 2:45 left to be played in the first half.

Wingback Mark Howard culminated the scoring splurge in the third stanza when he sprinted off guard and outran Tiger defenders for 65 yards and an electrifying paydirt run. Pretari missed the pat kick.

Terra Nova came to life in the third period when fullback Larry Jenkins banged off guard from a yard out. Quarterback Marty Coil ran in the PAT and the Tigers were on the scoreboard with 11:49 left in the third quarter.

In the final stanza, Coil threw touchdown passes to Mike Blagrove and Ron Coleman for the Tigers' final two scores. The last touchdown play covered 44 yards. Coil picked up the extra points after both scores on runs.

DAVE MAHONEY, Westmoor High school fullback, smiles appreciatively as he accepts a "TV Prep Player of the Week" award from Joe Rohl, Daly City manager for the Pacific Gas and Electric company. Presentation was made at a special school assembly. Mahoney, a senior, was cited for his outstanding performance in Westmoor's 35-6 victory over Jefferson High school which was televised by KGO-TV under the sponsorship of PGE.

Bulldogs Eye First Division in GG Loop

A first-division berth in the Golden Gate conference standings is now a possibility for College of San Mateo's football team.

The Bulldogs won a chilling 20-14 victory over San Jose City college Saturday afternoon at San Mateo High school and return to the same field this Saturday for their season finale—against Oakland at 1:30 p.m.

Quarterback Gene Scattini led CSM to a pair of last-second touchdowns during the final minutes of play to end a four-game losing streak and set the Bulldogs up for a possible fourth place tie in the league standings.

Indian Aerial Attack Tops Oceana, 12-0

A potent passing attack winged the Jefferson Indians to a 12-0 triumph over the Oceana Sharks Friday afternoon at Oceana in the season finale for both clubs.

The victory gave the Indians a 2-3 North Peninsula league mark and fourth place while the defeat relegated Oceana to fifth place with a 1-4 record.

The Indians' passing attack was led by quarterback Don Fisicaro who completed nine of 15 attempts for 186 yards and both of Jefferson's touchdowns.

His chief target for the afternoon was Ed Larios who gathered in 8 of the tosses for 158 yards. Larios tallied both Jeff scores.

The Indians marched 99 yards to their first touchdown late in the opening quarter after stopping the Sharks on downs on the Jeff one-foot line.

Fisicaro capped the drive with a 26-yard touchdown pass to Larios.

Jefferson picked up its second scorein the next quarter when Larios went over on a 15-yard pass play.

The Sharks outgained the Indians on the ground, 157 yards to 112, but were hurt by fumbles (they lost the ball on three occasions) and a stout Jefferson defense.

Westlake Bowl

WESTLAKE Bowl's Tee Rolling "took home all the marbles" as she placed first in Northern California BPAA Ladies' All-Star Eliminations with a tremendous average of 190 for 40 games. By placing first, Tee wins the right to represent this area in the National Championship next January in Dallas, Texas, where first prize is $5000.

The "Q" Room is the latest addition to Westlake as twelve Brunswick Gold Crown billiard tables now grace the interior of the Bowl to add to the complete recreation service being offered to Daly City area residents.

Bill Johnson took "bowler of the night" honors Monday as he led the Blue Monday Scratch league with a 215 game and big 627 series.

Clo Johnson with a 185 game and Terry Warde with a 469 series were the week's leaders in the St. Emydius Mothers' Guild league. Split converters were Lorraine Rinaldi 5-10, Lucy Good 5-10, L. Torres 2-7, Edna Lauro 5-8-10 and Beryl McGrath 5-8-10.

Progress was a most important word for May Morales in the Ladies' 810 Scratch league as she rolled 178-179-180 for a 537 stepladder series. Norma Baldelli took top honors in the league with a 215 game and 583 series.

Gail Hultgren and Ralph Arnott were the high rollers in the Southgate Mixed Fives as Gail bowled 160—449 and Ralph 221 and 543.

The Weekend Handicap Sweeper is the latest attraction being offered to Westlake bowlers. Running from midnight Friday to midnight Sunday, bowlers may compete anytime for the $100 guaranteed first prize and other cash prizes.

A big 235 game and 568 series gave Tony Tkaczyk top honors in the Golden Gate Handicap league.

THE TUESDAY morning YWCA league found Eve Balma taking both high game and high series honors with 192 and 467 while Thelma O'Connell converted the 3-10 split.

Our Junior 900 Scratch team continued to lead the Bay Area Junior Masters league. Next Sunday at 6 p.m. they invade Oakland's Broadway Bowl to take on the Brentwood Bowl team.

Lou Gilson was partial to the number two last Monday as he topped the Native Sons league with a 221 game and 622 series.

Sea Bowl

THANKSGIVING will be family day this year at Sea Bowl. We'll have family rates for the entire day and evening. Open lanes for the individuals too. This will kind of give Mom a break while she is preparing all the goodies that go into the making of a Thanksgiving dinner. Dad can load all of the kids in the car and bowl.

By popular demand, our 3-6-9 tournament has started once again Thursday afternoons at 1. As you girls who have participated in this in the past know, it's lots of fun and an excuse for getting together with the gals and away from the drudgery of housecleaning.

We are still taking team entries for the B.P.A.A. Women's Team Handicap tournament. If you are interested in bowling in this as an individual, we can place you on a team. Local eliminations will take place here through January 12. Sectional tournament will be held at Westlake Bowl and the finals will be in Sacramento in June.

LEAGUE INFORMATION: Beth Randall bowling on the Yawners league, was in top place for game and series with a 183-450. Sweepstakes winner was Sharon Burt with a 636. Luther Swinney of the Pacifica Travelers was top man of the day in all respects with a 224-626. The Moonshiner secretary, Pat Cde Baca, bowled a beautiful big 237 game and 480 series. This put Pat in the top honor spot.

★ ★ ★

GEORGE OHLANDER of the Tuesday Trios posted the high game and series with a 209-728. Belles and Beaus: Jerry Pruett did some sharp shooting and came up with high game of 225. Joe Bolton had the high series of 214-587. On the Neptunes Daughters league, Gloria Abbott had the high game of 179 and also bowled the first turkey of the day.

Dorene Daly went 100 pins over her average and this gave her the top series spot with a 476. Sea Breeze: Bob Uhrig and Whitey Hazen were in the spot light for high series. Both fellows rolled a 547. Bob broke the tie for the high game with a 200 against Whitey's 190.

TOUCH FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

PAL Pirates Win in Sudden Death; Eagles Topple Jets

The PAL Pirates of the fifth grade league won a sudden death game last week over the OLPH Bugs to highlight action in touch football leagues sponsored by the Daly City Recreation department.

Here is a review of the action in each league:

FIFTH GRADE

Jim McGill of the PAL Pirates won "hero of the week" honors by intercepting a pass last Saturday. This pass was important as it was thrown during a sudden death overtime following the Pirates' game with the OLPH Bugs.

The interception made the difference that gave the Pirates a 1-0 win over the Bugs.

This win keeps the Pirates undefeated. Their next opponent — the Holy Angel's Lions—is their last obstacle between them and the championship.

Right behind the Pirates are the PAL Tigers with a 5-0 record. The Tigers have lost only to the Pirates. Mongo Luciano's BYA Blues were their target this week and they hit them 39-0.

Vince Haymaker returned the opening kickoff 50 yards for a TD, then ran over the PAT.

He then tossed a 25-yard pass to Bill McMemony in the end zone.

Next, Steve Azzerello returned a Blue punt 50 yards for a score and Brad Perrone rambled for the PAT.

Jeff Orlich dazzled the Blues with a 70-yard run on a pass interception.

Alan Spitzer scored a TD on another intercepted pass and a 40-yard run. Steve Azzerello ran around end for the last score (33 yards) and Brad Perrone chalked up the last PAT.

Steve Goldberg ran over for the only score in the PAL Cougars-Holy Angel's Lions game. Dave Smith passed to Gerry Hess for the PAT to make it 7-0.

Fighting it out this week, the PAL Rams overcame the BYA Renegades on a pass interception by Ricky Paras.

After being battered by a tough Renegade line, and giving up a safety when Albert Abbott caught a Ram in the end zone, Paras' play gave the Rams a 6-2 win.

SIXTH GRADE

Soaring above the other league teams, the PAL Eagles moved higher in the standings last week by toppling the PAL Jets, 13-0.

Larry Belfrage intercepted a Jet pass and ran 10 yards for the first score. Later in the game, Belfrage ran three yards for the second TD. Fred Balleto scored the PAT.

In another defensive battle, the OLPH Golds fought it out with the Holy Angels' Colts, before OLPH triumphed, 6-2.

The Colts caught the Golds in their own end zone for two points through the efforts of Mark Hamilton.

But Jack Kearney of the Golds picked off a Colt aerial and flashed 60 yards for six points.

SEVENTH GRADE

Bob Abbott's Bender Roofing Cats came up last week with an unblemished record, five wins and no losses. This puts them in the lead for the championship.

Tom Neary put his name down in OLPH history last week. Neary gained over 200 yards in his team's 19-0 win over the PAL Braves.

John McGlung opened the gate for Neary with a crushing block that sprang Neary for a 65-yard TD right up the middle.

He also scored on a six-yard run and a 20-yard TD run.

EIGHTH GRADE

Bobbie Nolan was the big man for the PAL Bears as they displayed the awesome power that played the awesome power that has given them a perfect record this season.

The OLPH Steamrollers were their victim this time, 34-6.

Nolan started Bear scoring by hitting Ron Caserza with a 40-yard TD bomb.

Faculty Tops Grid Champs

The Colma Intermediate school faculty upended the Vikings, champs of the Colma school recreational league, 23-9, in a touch football game last week.

The Vikings, led by captain Barry Perrone, got off to a bad start at the outset when the faculty nabbed a Perrone pass and hit the end zone for the initial score.

Bike Racing Planned

The Daly City department of recreation will hold bicycle competition at the Westmoor High school football field Saturday, starting at 1 p.m. Teams, representing recreational areas throughout the city, will compete. From this competition, a city-wide team will be formed to meet teams from other communities.

Jeff Photo Exhibit

PHOTOGRAPHY is the main object of interest here as Jefferson High school student Randy Marson, left, points out details in one of three photographs he has on display in an exhibit at the Westlake library. Seated is Mrs. Ersie Veit, a member of the library staff while Gil Toibin, photography instructor at Jefferson, looks on. Randy and other members of Toibin's class have 38 photographs in the exhibit. Special ORT Services to Be Conducted

Rabbi Sanford Rosen will conduct special services at Peninsula Temple Beth-Elin in San Mateo at 8:30 p.m. Friday in honor of ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation through Training).

The occasion of the special services is ORT Sabbath, an annual observance held in synagogues and temples throughout the country in honor of the work done by ORT, a world-wide organization that gives vocational education and training to needy and uprooted Jewish people.

The observances, over 300 of which will be held this year, are sponsored by Women's American ORT, which aids the ORT training programs.

The sponsoring chapters of the Peninsula Region are Northern, Central, El Camino, Southern and Live Oak. Mrs. Frank Gold, Regional Education Chairman, will present a book for the temple library in the name of the Peninsula region.

Pastor Starts Bible Series

The Reverend E. J. Banning, of Bethel church of Pacifica, is teaching a series of lessons on "The Great Doctrines of the Bible."

Lessons are presented each Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the church sanctuary, at Higgins way and Adobe drive in Linda Mar.

Sessions are open to the public. Texts will be provided.

"One of the great needs of the present hour is to have a solid basis for one's faith," Reverend Banning said.

Beginning with salvation, the series runs the gamut of all the doctrines — the baptism of the holy spirit, divine healing, stewardship, missions, witnessing for Christ, the ordinances of the church, and the second coming of Jesus Christ.

Yule Cantata To Be Offered

The cantata, "Night of Miracles," by John Peterson, will be presented at Westlake Community Baptist church as the church's annual Christmas concert.

The cantata will be directed by Ronald Foreman, musical director for the church.

The Pacifica Baptist church choir will join with the Westlake church's choir in presenting the cantata, which will also be presented in Pacifica.

Anyone interested in singing in the concert may attend rehearsal and tryout sessions each Thursday evening at 8 at the Westlake church.

Divine Services

AND CHURCH ACTIVITIES OF DALY CITY, COLMA, PACIFICA AND SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO

ADDING A FEW final touches to Christmas decorations that will be on sale at a holiday tea sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of Wesley Methodist church are, left to right, Mrs. John Morton, president of the society; Mrs. Roger S. Murray, chairman of the tea and Mrs. James Booher. The tea will be held in the fellowship hall of Temple Methodist church in San Francisco from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday, December 7. (Post-Times photo)

A NEW APPROACH

Services Planned For Thanksgiving

The Daly City Ministers' association has decided to try a different approach to Thanksgiving services this year.

It will urge attendance at all churches in the community rather than sponsor one or two union services on Thanksgiving Day in addition to services conducted by churches whose pastors are members of the association.

To facilitate community-wide attendance and to affirm the basic unity among the churches, the association has prepared this schedule of Thanksgiving services, which will be augmented next week:

Broadmoor Presbyterian church, 377 Eighty-seventh street, the Rev. Herbert Tweedie, pastor. A Thanksgiving eve service will be held at 8 p.m. next Wednesday. The pastor will preach on: "Reasons for Thankfulness."

Seacliff Community church, 50 Northridge drive, the Rev. Clark Robb, pastor. Dr. Mabel Silver, a missionary from Africa, will speak at a Thanksgiving service at 7:30 p.m. Friday, November 29. Her talk will be part of the church's current school of missions program.

St. Martin's Episcopal church, 777 Southgate avenue, the Rev. Richard P. Fowler, vicar. A Thanksgiving observance will be held together with communion at 10 a.m. Thanksgiving Day.

Wesley Methodist church, the Rev. E. A. Wolfe, pastor. Thanksgiving will be observed during the morning worship hour Sunday. The church holds services in Thomas Edison school at 1225 Southgate avenue.

Westlake Lutheran church, Avalon drive and Westmoor avenue, the Rev. Kenneth D. Hansen, pastor. A Thanksgiving eve service will be held at 7:45 p.m. next Wednesday. The sermon topic will be: "Thanks-Living."

Rev. Tweedie To Give Talk

The Rev. Herbert C. Tweedy, minister of Broadmoor Presbyterian church, will be guest speaker at the Friday evening service of Congregation B'nai Israel at 67 Los Banos avenue, Daly City.

Rev. Tweedy is appearing as a tribute to Rabbi Soolmon Shore and the congregation, which must abandon its spiritual quarters at the end of this month because of a new street project.

The sisterhood of the congregation will hold its regular membership meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. George Ehrlich, 490 Northhaven drive, Daly City.

Loyalty Fete Is Scheduled

The Westlake Community Baptist church will hold its annual Loyalty Banquet at 6:30 p.m. Friday in the fellowship hall of the church.

Department heads will report on progress for the year and a proposed budget for 1964 will be presented.

The dinner will be catered by the Sai Wu Garden restaurant. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. George Easley at PL. 6-4367 or PL 6-5400.

Laymen to Guide Hour At Westside

Laymen members of Westside Baptist church at 2322 Crestmoor drive, San Bruno, will conduct the Evening Gospel Hour at the church at 7 p.m. Sunday.

A film, "Treasures in Heaven," will be shown. Special music by an all-male chorus will be sung.

Mrs. Jeanne King, former organist of the Greenhills Baptist church of Cincinnati, will be at the console of a new organ presented to the church by a member.

At the 9:45 a.m. service Sunday, the Rev. A. David Donelly, pastor, will discuss: "Thankful for Salvation."

The Sunday School program will be highlighted by an attendance contest between the school and the Sunday school of Willow Glen Baptist church of San Jose.

The two churches won contests in their divisions in competition among Baptist churches in the Bay Area.

The mid-week prayer and Bible study hour will meet this evening at the parsoange at 232 Mansfield drive, South San Francisco.

Recollection Day Changed

A day of recollection, originally scheduled for tomorrow at Holy Angels church, has been changed to Tuesday, according to an announcement by Mrs. Alex Mayer, vice president of the Holy Angels Women's guild.

Hours will be from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Teenager Asks . . .

By JOE BAVARESCO

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

I belong to a teen club and we were saying how there is nothing planned for Christmas vacation because a lot of us are too young to get a permit to work.

We would like to do some good. But we don't know where to start. Do you have any suggestions?

Nancy L. and friends

Dear Nancy L. and Friends;

You have already done the hardest part: you have a group. Get as many of the kids together that you can and start.

1. You are needed in old age homes to entertain and read and help older citizens who are lonely.

2. There are too many children's hospitals that are overcrowded and in strong need of teenage help. These children need your eyes and ears, your hands and most of all your smile and kindness.

3. In centers for the handicapped, people need your helping hands and attention and friendship. Have you ever needed a friend? These handicapped people need friends and companions — even to play checkers or cards or just for a conversation.

You know, there is a great world awaiting you. That's the world of the feeling of having done something extra special in your life.

I know a woman who started a recreation center for the handicapped children in San Francisco and believe me, I have met many people in my life but would venture to say she is the holiest person I know.

Not in the religious sense, this I don't know, but in the sense of helping others.

She says: "There is nothing that makes you feel closer to God than helping those less fortunate."

She has worked for several years, many hours a day, raising money to support the center that means so much to handicapped teenagers and children in the Bay Area.

You will always find her at the center, at Sloat boulevard and the Great highway in San Francisco, working, talking and loving the children who have come to love her.

As a footnote: she gets no money for this.

There is a place that can put you to work doing good.

There are many organizations that need you. Don't let your idea die. Put it to work. Call the Red Cross or United Crusade office. They have a list of organizations that can use your time. The best Christmas present you can give is YOURSELF.

Deear Mr. Bavaresco:

A group of us girls were comparing notes. Our boy friends all have one thing in common: they lack manners. What has happened to the gentleman of long ago? Why don't guys use manners anymore? We thought perhaps you might give us some idea as to how we can get boys to be gentlemen.

Les Girls

Dear Girls:

Did you ever stop to think that maybe you are not ladies. There is nothing that will make a guy start using manners like a lady. Maybe your problem is not with the boys but with yourselves.

I'm not defending these guys. I'm merely making an observation. Last week I gave a talk at a P-TA meeting and there were several teenagers there.

I noticed that the guys acted like gentlemen to some girls and not to others.

So if you want your boyfriend to act like a gentlemen, why not begin by you acting like a lady?

Manners are great but unless they are appreciated, they're wasted. When your boy friend does something nice, tell him. Make him feel big and chances are he will do it more often.

You can't force a guy to use manners. They will rebel. So my advise to you is start with the home front: Yourself. The rest will come natural.

Manners and courtesy are like jumping into a pool of water. You are bound to spash some on the people around you.

Teenagers: If you have a topic or problem you'd like me to discuss, you may write me, Joe Bavaresco, in care of The Times.

The Top Ten

Here is a list of the top ten tunes teenagers in the North county are listening to, according to reports from local record stores.

1. Sugar Shack — Jimmy Gilmer and the Fireballs.
2. Popsicles and Icicles — The Murmaids
3. Since I Fell for You — Lenny Welch
4. Louie, Louie — Paul Revere and the Raiders
5. Deep Purple — Nino Tempo and April Stevens
6. I'm Leaving It All Up to You — Dale and Grace
7. Wonderful Summer — Robin Ward
8. In My Room — Beach Boys
9. Wives and Lovers — Jack Jones
10. Midnight Mary — Joey Powers

New Team Teaching Is Tried

By LESLIE ABRAHAM AND SHERRY ROSEN

WHAT IS an American?

Answering this question is one of the primary objectives of a new teaching method at Westmoor that correlates American literature and history in an attempt to give students a more complete insight into their socity's unique and significant place in history.

A new "team teaching" class is a combination of two of Donald Dunning's English classes and two of Alvin Wolf's history classes.

Varying its daily schedule, the combined class of 51 students frequently meets with one teacher for a two-period session; at other times it meets with each teacher for one period.

Illustrating the interrelationship of all knowledge, the course correlates the language arts of reading, writing, speaking, listening, and thinking in both historical and literary context.

The purpose of the new method is to give a deeper understanding of American literature by placing readings in a historical setting, showing how the cultural forces of a given period affected the literature and thought of that period.

Conversely, it offers insight into U. S. history through a literary and cultural analysis of American life at any given time. This approach allows instructors to teach the separate skills of both disciplines, using a more flexible and realistic approach than previously possible.

Among procedures used to accomplish the objectives of the course are panels and symposiums, debates, book reports and themes.

Lectures given in large group settings emphasize the importance of note-taking while oral question-and-answer-periods are frequently employed to clarify lectures and readings.

Also included are creative writing and such audio-visual material as records, motion pictures and bulletin board displays.

Benefits of the new course are already apparent.

The two teachers find it easier to give one lecture to two combined classes than to repeat the same lecture to two periods in a row.

But more important, they feel, are the discussions and varied opinions gained from the larger group, which, in turn, makes the class more interesting.

If this experimental course proves successful, the team teaching class may become a precedent for future similar classes at Westmoor.

Catholics Form Group On Interracial Justice

Leaders of the St. Thomas More society, a Catholic lawyers group, and the Catholic Interracial Council have announced the formation of a lawyers' committee on interracial justice.

In making the announcement, More society president Peter A. Ribar said the attorneys' organization will study existing civil rights laws and secure their application to specific cases involving aggrieved members of minority groups.

"Where we, as Catholic lawyers, can professionally aid the current and compelling quest for equal rights and opportunities," said Council president James T. McDonald, "we shall do so."

Committee members will explain legislation, counsel individuals, serve as mediators and conciliators, and assist in trial and appellate litigation and administrative hearings where necessary.

Indian Religion To Be Discussed

A short talk on "The Religion of the American Indian" and a discussion on the subect will highlight a meeting of the Pacific Unitarian fellowship at 10 a.m. Sunday.

The fellowship meets in the Oddstad Recreation center in Linda Mar.

The speaker will be Henry M. Boudinot, a member of the fellowship who has a Cherokee Indian background.

Sister Speaks At Women's Club

Sister Mary Helen, H. H. S., will be the speaker for the evening at the Mater Dolorosa Women's club at 8 p.m. tonight, at the church hall.

Sister Helen is principal of the Mater Dolorosa school of Religion. Tonight she will be speaking about devotion to the Holy Souls and the work that her order does to spread devotion to them.

Wesley Group To Serve Tea

The women's group of Wesley Methodist church will conduct a holiday tea from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday, December 7, at Temple Methodist church at 19th avenue and Junipero Serra boulevard in San Francisco.

A variety show will be presented by the St. Francis Heights Dancing academy.

Mrs. James McGuigan is chairman of the entertainment. Mrs. Roger S. Murray is the chairman of the tea. A booth with Christmas gifts and decorations will be open.

BETTER BUSINESS

Hints on Buying Used Car Offered

By LORENE BEASLEY
Editor of the Better Business Bureau's "Barometer"

A GOOD automobile, used or new, provides transportation and gives pleasure to its owner. Automobile manufacturers and reputable dealers urge the public to shop carefully, select a reliable dealer, get the facts and get all the terms in writing.

The customer should share the responsibility with the dealer in a used car purchase.

The majority of used cars, several or more years old, are sold "as is," which means that the buyer accepts the car in the condition it is in at the time of sale and at his own risk.

He must remember that when he is buying a used car he is buying a car that someone else did not want.

The used car may have been traded in by its former owner simply because he wanted a new car and it may be in excellent condition.

On the other hand, the car may have been traded in because the owner was faced with an extensive overhaul.

Most people are unable to judge the condition of a used car and must depend entirely upon the reliability of the dealer.

A reliable dealer makes it perfectly clear to the customer the condition of the car he is considering buying.

If the dealer has to go to considerable reconditioning expense he will have to pass the costs onto the customer. The dealer cannot be expected to lose money on a car, nor can he be expected to assume the risk of a new car guarantee.

However, unless the used car purchaser has been the victim of outright misrepresentation or high pressure sales talk, there is no excuse for him not to understand the condition of the car he is buying.

A reliable dealer will permit a prospective car buyer to thoroughly examine any car he is contemplating buying. He will let him drive it to see how it runs, how the brakes, the clutch and the gearshift work.

He can ask all the questions he wants to. Too often a buyer fails to ask enough questions about the former owner of the car, how it was used, where it came from and why the car was traded in.

A buyer of a used car should check the rubber on the car. Has the car been in a wreck? Do the body and fenders show evidence of collision? How about engine compression? Valves? Transmission? Water leaks? The speedometer may have been turned back.

Allow 10,000 miles for each model year of age for a non-business car. It is wise to have the car checked by an independent mechanic for a small fee to get a fair appraisal of the car's condition and how much overhaul it might need.

A BUYER cannot expect new car performance from a used car nor can he expect the car not to need any more repairs than a new car.

The purchaser of a used car can expect some trouble unless the dealer guarantees in writing that the car is in perfect condition and will not need repairs.

"Be on your guard against such advertisements as "name your own terms," "we beat any deal in town," "we undersell."

Beware of the "bait" advertiser. If you answer an ad on a car advertised in glowing terms and then are told that the car is in terrible condition and you are offered another car at a higher price — look elsewhere!

The fact that the car is "repossessed" does not make it better or cheaper than any other used car. When such cars are sold direct to the public, they are sold generally at competitive market prices.

No used car is properly described as "perfect" or "never driven." Remember that a "new car guarantee" should mean a manufacturer's guarantee; that a "free driving trial" should mean a trial without any obligation; that "exchange trial" means the privilege of exchange.

SHOP AROUND before buying and compare prices and guarantees. Read carefully any contract you are asked to sign.

There is no law that prevents a prospective buyer from reading the purchase order and the contract before he signs and from checking over any points of difference between it and what the salesman has told him.

Remember, verbal promises by the salesman are not backed by the dealer. Be sure that all blank spaces in the contract are filled in or crossed out as required by law. Get a completely filled out copy of the contract at the time of signing.

The Better Business Bureau is mostly concerned with the advertising of used cars and provable fraud upon selling.

An analysis of the complaints submitted by used car buyers reveal that misleading advertising claims, poor condition of cars, limited guarantees and financing problems cause the majority of the complaints.

Detective Co. Launched

Jonas Heaton, former Western Regional manager for the Pinkerton Detective agency, has announced the opening of a new detective agency in the North county.

With his partner, William V. McSweeney, Heaton purchased the South San Francisco Patrol service which operates in the Colma-South San Francisco-San Bruno area.

The new firm is called the Systems Investigation and Security company.

Heaton, who lives at 1244 Southgate avenue, Daly City, has operated as an official for the Pinkerton agency in 18 different cities.

The Systems agency is interested primarily in industrial security problems but will handle any legitimate investigative or security problem, not including domestic relations, Heaton said.

Coast Drive In Top Gear

Off to a late start because of the Mary's Help hospital fund drive, the Pacifica United Crusade drive is now in top gear.

Mrs. Edna Laurel Calhan, Crusade residential chairman for Pacifica, has announced the names of 10 men who are serving as area chairmen. They are:

Robert D. Bouche, Edgemar; Paul Doyle, Pacific Manor; Ivan Jensen, Manor Village; Louis A. Lorenz, Westview; Daniel Martin, Sharp Park, and Marion Phinney, Fairway Park.

W. C. Howell, Vallemar; Leonard Mackey, Rockaway Beach; Don McMannis, Linda Mar, and Pacifica Fire Chief Ed Greer, Pedro Point.

HOUSE RANSACKED

Milton W. Baldy, 453 St. Francis boulevard, Daly City, reported to police last week that thieves had ransacked his home and stolen money, food, clothing and jewelry. The amount of the loss was not immediately determined.

Youth Honored by Optimists

YOUTH APPRECIATION WORK was observed last week by the Lake Merced Optimist club. The service organization had as its guests a number of boys from the Bessie Carmichael school in San Francisco. The boys were treated to lunch and a talk by State Senator Tom Mahonry and former major league catcher Joe Springer. The speakers and president Joseph Cabral talk with the boys at the luncheon at Sai-Wu Gardens in Daly City.

Westmoor Whirl

By SHEILA STAVISH

THE YARDS of string entwined around multitudinous numbers of baby fingers are not intended as a cure for mass female forgetfullness, but are actually powerful, magic teen-age talismans. The bevy of bestringed girls must each encase seven other fingers (one per person) in seven layers of thread.

Then, just before gangrene sets in, she asks her "True love" to extricate the blue and withered pinky. At this tender moment her dearest wish is miraculously granted. One thrilled Westmoorite reports that her heart's desire was indeed bestowed when she fervently wished to avoid being struck by a shooting star. She thanks her lucky strings for her good fortune.

Speculation is increasing about the mysterious piles of dirt on Westmoor's archery field. A P.E. teacher swears that they are the work of gophers. Queried by a skeptical student as to the feasibility of a little rodent digging THAT MUCH, the teacher blithely spread her hands two feet to show the size of the average Westlake gopher.

IF THERE is a sudden rise in young Republicanism, it can probably be attributed to President Kennedy's formidable physical fitness program, which is faithfully followed by boys' coaches. Classes have to put up with pull-ups, push-ups, and sit-ups, as well as sprinting in the shuttle run, 50 yard dash, and (voted the most dreaded) the 600 yard run.

Several sophomores can boast of consecutively completing 100 sit-ups, double the program's par.

One agile lad, however, claimed that he decided to quit after only 46 of the muscle-wrenching exercises because, he explained logically, he wanted to be in shape for quarter finals.

Paul Zimmerman's enriched world history class is easily dismayed by their teacher's facetious jesting. After zealously scribbling notes for half the period, the studious sophomores are faced with the mock, stern reproof: "Okay, let's get down to work now."

Westmoorites are eagerly exchanging I.D. photos taken in October, but their enthusiasm is not shared by teachers who find that some students would rather study their friends' pictures than textbooks.

New Year's is six weeks away but Ram resolutions are already being made. Those who felt (or more likely whose parents felt) that report cards should contain more of the first and second letters of the alphabet, are pledged to a grade-raising crusade. Classes are quieter, fewer books spend the night in lockers, and faces shine with intellectual enthusiasm.

Youth Role Reviewed in Conference

By SHERRY ROSEN and SHEILA STAVISH

"Strengthening the Sixties" was the theme of the second annual North Peninsula League conference held at Westmoor High school Saturday.

Nearly 100 representatives and their advisers from El Camino, Jefferson, Oceana, South San Francisco, Terra Nova, and Westmoor High schools met to spend the day discussing and analyzing the role of youth in the school, in the community and in the nation.

The delegates represented their respective executive boards and student body and class officers.

Student body president Larry Siegel and Westmoor principal Glenn South welcomed the group in the Little theater.

Delegates then divided into six discussion groups. Topics ranged from student leadership and school spirit to student body finance and school-community relations.

Also discussed were various aspects of student control and co-curricular activities.

Brunch in the cafeteria preceded three simultaneous sessions, featuring as guest speakers: Daly City Recreation Director Allan Boyd; labor youth consultant C. Z. Brown, and State Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan.

Exploring the subject of youth recreation programs, Boyd noted a recent survey in which junior and senior high school students reported that their weekend recreation included reading and home chores as well as dating, watching TV, and dancing.

"When I'm Old Enough — Good-bye!" was the title of a movie on high school drop-outs, presented by Brown.

Ryan told his audience that, as the leaders of tomorrow, they have an obligation to further educate themselves in order to prepare for the task of serving the community.

Heavy Coil Is Stolen at Plant

A coil of copper wire, weighing almost 200 pounds, was stolen from a loading platform at the Pacific Gas and Electric company substation at 450 Eastmoor avenue in Daly City, police reported last week.

The wire was valued at $90, PG&E officials said.

Democrats Plan Smorgasbord

The Daly City-Colma Democratic club will meet at 8 p.m. tonight at the Garden Village school, according to Vincent Cauchi president.

The club will discuss plans for the annual smorgasbord party on December 8 at the Broadmoor Community center, 714 White street. The Democratic club will be observing its 30th anniversary as a chartered club.

Tickets for the smorgasbord may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Margaret Becker at JU 5-3600 or Cauchi at PL 5-0309.

Final 'Race, Residence' Forum Scheduled Monday

The last in a series of three public forums on "Race and Residence," sponsored by the North Coastisde Community council, Pacifica's service organization, will be held at 8 p.m. Monday at Vallemar school on Reina del Mar.

The meeting will feature four experts in race relations who have been active in organizations working for racial harmony. They have been asked to serve as resource people for Pacifica civic and religious organizations.

They will attempt to answer questions about the problems of initiating civil rights programs. They are:

Dr. Robert Holloway, who was to have spoken at the first panel, is engaged in research on minority problems and will attempt to counsel from the sociologist's point of view.

Maxwell A. Hull, chairman of the Marin Committee for Fair Play and an English teacher at the University of San Francisco and Tamalpais High school; will contribute from his 15 years experience in civil rights groups.

Of special interest will be his exhibits of work accomplished in housing by Marin civil rights groups.

Irvin Futter, San Francisco State college education teacher, advises a citizens' group in Oakland that is attempting positive action in race relations.

George Dabney, president of the San Mateo County Council for Civic Unity, who is a teacher, will have recommendations from the perspective of the council's work over the years.

To explain a "triumph" start with the first syllable.

GUESTS AT the surprise housewarming party at the new Howard Hoops' home on Pedro Point in Pacifica recently are still singing the praises of that spectacular abode.

Perched atop the precipice, the home, designed and constructed almost entirely by the Hoops, overlooks the rugged coastline from one vantage point and the lights of the bay area from another. Guests being entertained in a two-story living room can relax graciously amid the oriental furnishings and view a huge segment of the panorama that is the bay area or gaze admirably at the winding mosaic stairway created by Mrs. Hoops.

Joan Stump was among the chief organizers of the party and Mrs. Hoops conspired to surprise her husband.

Presentation of two gifts for the home's oriental garden was one of the highlights of the evening. Business associates presented the Hoops with an unusual oriental weeping willow tree and others gave them a huge habachi for outdoor enjoyment.

THE WESTLAKE SENIOR CITIZENS commence a very active holiday season agenda when they hold the third anniversary and Thanksgiving luncheon at noon today in Westlake Baptist church.

Early in December, the group will attempt to make your Christmas shopping easy by offering a huge selection of homemade aprons, pillowcases, decorative pillows, Christmas novelties and, in the good eating department, cookies, cakes and candy from the kitchens of some of Westlake's finest cooks.

Everyone is invited to attend this bazaar, which will be held in the recreation room of the Westlake Baptist church, Southgate avenue and Elmwood drive, Wednesday, December 4, from 1 to 3:30 p.m.

Final big event of the holiday season will be a Christmas luncheon Wednesday, December 18. The members will have their club Christmas tree and holiday celebration during the luncheon.

☆ ☆ ☆

YOUNG STEVEN KEREKES, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kerekes of Westlake, invited a number of his friends to celebrate his birthday with a party at Thornton beach.

A wiener roast preceded a rough-and-tumble football game.

League of Voters to Discuss U.N.

The newly organized Pacifica unit of the League of Women Voters of San Mateo will be discussing the United Nations and foreign economic policy today at the home of Mrs. Frederick Stearns, 210 Springdale, Fairmont, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

The purpose of the nonpartisan group, open to any woman citizen of voting age, is to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens on all government levels — local, state and national.

Chairman Jean Fredericks stressed, "A Pacifica unit rather than league was formed primarily to gain experience in league methods and programs, but is only temporary. If enough interest is generated between now and May we will discuss plans to form our own league in the fall. Until that time the board of directors of San Mateo LWV has scheduled regular meetings in Pacifica on Wednesdays."

League members will have an opportunity to interview State Senator Richard Dolwig Friday. A meeting is scheduled for December with Congressman J. Arthur Younger.

Additional league information can be obtained from Chairman Jean Fredericks, 359-4076 or Veda Fassler, 359-4035.

There is sitter service available.

Information Program to Show Films

The Pacific Heights P-TA's parent - information program will feature a film and talk on "The Adolescent," for sixth, seventh, and eighth grade girls and their mothers at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the school.

Mrs. Josephine Eastman, school nurse at the school, will be chairman for the meeting.

Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., the film, "Human Growth," will be shown to sixth, seventh, and eighth grade boys and their fathers.

Dr. Robert Dermott of the American Medical association speakers' bureau will be the chairman.

"The purpose of these films and discussions are to provide an avenue of communication between the early teen-ager and his or her parents," said Mrs. Phil Wells, parent-information chairman.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California, will receive sealed bids for the FURNISHING OF ALL LABOR, MATERIALS, TRANSPORTATION AND SERVICES required for the Construction of a STORM DRAIN ON TOWER ROAD NEAR HILLCREST JUVENILE HOME for the County of San Mateo.

2. Each bid shall be in accordance with drawings, specifications, and contract documents prepared therefor now on file with the Purchasing Agent, County of San Mateo, Courthouse, Redwood City, California.

3. Drawings, specifications, and contract documents may be examined and copies obtained at the Office of the County Purchasing Agent, Redwood City, California, upon deposit of $25.00 for said documents, which deposits will be forfeited if the Contractor fails to return the drawings and specifications in good condition within ten (10) days of the bid opening date.

4. A complete set of drawings, specifications and contract documents may be examined at the Office of the San Mateo County Director of Building Construction, County Office Building, Redwood City, California.

5. Bidders are responsible to see that they obtain a complete set of plans, specifications and contract documents covering the work upon which they submit a bid.

6. Bids shall be submitted upon proposal forms furnished and bound in the specifications and in accordance with regulations, as set forth in the General Conditions, and shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bid bond for 10% of the amount of the bid as noted in said General Conditions.

7. Bids shall be sealed and filed with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo at the Hall of Justice and Records, Redwood City, California, on or before the 3rd day of DECEMBER, 1963, at 10:00 A.M. and will be opened in public in the Chambers of said Board of Supervisors at or about 10:00 A.M. of that day in said Hall of Justice and Records.

8. The Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California, reserves the right to reject any and all bids, alternate bids, or unit prices, and/or waive any irregularities in any bid received.

9. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty days after the date set for the opening thereof.

10. Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, or local law thereto applicable, the Board of Supervisors has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which this work is being performed, for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute this contract which will be awarded the successful bidder.

11. It shall be mandatory upon the Contractor, and upon any subcontractors under him, to pay not less than the said specific rates to all laborers, workmen or mechanics employed by them in the execution of the Contract.

12. The prevailing rates so determined are as follows and are based on an 8 hour day, 40 hour week, except as otherwise noted. Existing agreements between the Building Trades and the Construction Industry groups relative to overtime, holidays and other special provisions shall be recognized.

LOCAL LABOR:

13. It is the policy of the Owner that Contractors on public projects employ their workers and craftsmen from the local labor market whenever possible. Consistent with that policy the contractor is requested to employ his craftsmen and other workers from the local labor market whenever possible to do so. "Local Labor Market" within the meaning of this section is defined as the labor market within the geographical confines of the County of San Mateo, State of California.

WAGE RATES:

14. The Board of Supervisors has determined the rate of prevailing wages in the locality in which the work is to be performed for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to perform the contract. Said prevailing rates are set forth below:

BOYS AND GIRLS

You can be a winner in THE TIMES' 3rd Annual Kid's Christmas Contest for Boys and Girls Age 6-10. It's Easy—It's Fun! Just write The Times on the subject:

"WHAT CHRISTMAS MEANS TO ME!"

Pictures (maybe of you!) of the Two Daily Winners Will Appear Each Day the Christmas Gift Spotter Is Published.

$200 Will Be Given in Merchandise Goods. Good at Any Store Advertising in the Christmas Classified Gift Spotter.

REMEMBER, THE CONTEST CLOSES DECEMBER 6th. You may enter as often as you like, so get started right away. YOU COULD EASILY BE A WINNER! The winners' pictures will be published in the Christmas Gift Spotter in the Classified Section.

MAKE YOUR ENTRY ACCORDING TO THE RULES BELOW WATCH FOR THE FIRST GIFT SPOTTER ON NOVEMBER 21ST

1. Entrants must be between the ages of 6 and 10 years, inclusive.
2. Entrants can use the necessary number of words to tell their story of "What Christmas Means to Me."
3. Winners will be selected for ideas, thought and sincerity, rather than on English, spelling or handwriting. (Drawings will not be judged.) An adult approach might be a handicap to a child's entry.
4. Children of the Times' employees are not eligible.
5. Entries will be accepted from November 3rd through December 6th.
6. Paste or attach the Gift Tag Coupon to your entry. Mail or bring your entry to The Times Classified Adv. Dept., 145 Second Ave., San Mateo, Calif.

Clam Juice Cocktail or Tomato Juice
Turkey Dressing Gravy
Souffle Potatoes Molded Cranberry Salad
Green Peas with Green Onions and Sour Cream
Pumpkin Fluff Pie

WHEN THE Pilgrim Fathers went out hunting on that cold fall day so many years ago and came back with turkeys, they really started something. For since that day, turkey and Thanksgiving have been synonymous and the poor turkeys have hated November ever since.

Every family has its own idea of what makes a perfect Thanksgiving dinner—a special dressing, usually the kind "Mother used to make," cranberry sauce, or pumpkin pie or possibly a special grace that is reserved just for this day with its special meaning.

Whatever it is, by all means preserve the tradition. For in our fast-moving and rapidly changing world, traditions are being lost in the rush. And we should really make an effort to keep them with us.

While we should cling to the old traditions, we must try something new too, especially in the way of new dishes. Thinking along these lines, we'll offer some old and new ideas for this day:

CLAM JUICE COCKTAIL OR TOMATO JUICE

3 tbsp. lemon juice
1 cup clam juice
2 cups tomato juice
A drop of Tabasco sauce
Salt as needed

Mix together and chill. Stir well. Serve in chilled glasses.

The children of the family will probably prefer plain tomato juice. To fancy it up, float a thin, thin slice of lemon on top.

☆ ☆ ☆

WHAT WOULD a turkey be without dressing? Did I hear some funny one say, "undressed"? That's for sure and your families would feel that they were cheated without this delightful stuffing. Many families have their own special dressing, as I said earlier, and what is just right for your family might be just wrong for mine. So we will just give the ingredients for a basic dressing and you can give it a whirl and add or subtract what you wish. My family likes ripe pitted olives in dressing.

DRESSING

4 cups bread crumbs
½ cup margarine
½ tsp. salt
3 tbsp. chopped onion
3 tbsp. chopped celery
½ tsp. poultry seasonings or sage

Use two-day-old bread and crumble it into small bits. Throw away the crusts, they only detract from the dressing. Melt the butter in a frying pan and saute the onion and celery until tender. Add the bread crumbs and seasonings and mix well. (P.S.—Taste and add more seasonings if you wish, dressing needs tasting as you go along.)

Remember not to pack the dressing too tightly in the bird. For it expands in cooking, so keep it loose. And don't forget to stuff the breast or crop cavity—this helps keep the meat moist.

SOUFFLE POTATOES

3 cups hot mashed potatoes
3 tbsp. butter or margarine
3 egg yolks
Milk to moisten
1 tsp. salt

Add the butter or margarine, salt and beaten egg yolks to potatoes. Then add just enough milk to give them a nice moist consistency—but not too soft. Then place in a pretty baking dish (that you can bring to the table) and fluff the potatoes into peaks, brush with one egg white beaten with one teaspoon water. Brown in 425 degree oven. Keep an eye on them. Don't let them get too brown.

GREEN PEAS WITH ONIONS AND SOUR CREAM

2 pkgs. frozen green peas
3 green onions
3 tbsp. sour cream

Cook the peas and sliced green onion together. Don't overcook them, they are better undercooked. Then drain, add salt and pepper and the sour cream. This really is a dish that depends on your taste. If you like lots of onion add more, ditto for the sour cream.

MOLDED CRANBERRY SALAD

1 pkg. orange flavored Jell-O
2 cups raw cranberries, ground
1 cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped nuts
Juice of one lemon

Prepare the Jell-O according to directions on the package. Add lemon juice and set aside to cool. Grind the raw cranberries and mix with nuts and chopped celery. Mix into the almost set Jell-O and pour into individual molds. Chill. Serve on lettuce with a dressing of mayonnaise and a little fruit juice, mixed together.

AS YOU faithful readers know, there is one dessert that I especially like and offer often in my columns. That dessert is pie. Whenever I find a new one that is easier or prettier or more delicious I'm eager to share it with you. Well this pie does fill all those qualifications. Easier, prettier and more delicious than any-chiffon pumpkin pie I've ever made or tasted. This recipe appeared in the November issue of Better Homes and Gardens magazine.

PUMPKIN FLUFF PIE

3-4 cup brown sugar
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
½ tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
½ tsp. nutmeg
¼ tsp. ginger
3 slightly beaten egg yolks
3-4 cup milk
1¼ cups canned or mashed cooked pumpkin
3 egg whites
1-3 cup granulated sugar
1 9-inch corn-flake crust

In saucepan, combine brown sugar, gelatin, salt and spices. Combine egg yolks and milk; stir into brown-sugar mixture. Cook and stir until mixture comes to a boil. Remove from heat; stir in pumpkin. Chill till mixture mounds slightly when spooned. (Test every now and then—don't let it get too stiff.) Beat egg whites till soft peaks form; gradually add granulated sugar, beating to stiff peaks. Fold pumpkin mixture thoroughly into egg whites. Turn into cooled corn-flake crust. Trim pie with a dollop of whipped cream and wreath of California walnut halves.

CORN-FLAKE CRUST

1 cup packaged corn-flake crumbs or
4 cups corn flakes, coarsely crushed
2 tbsp. sugar
2 tbsp. finely chopped California walnuts
1-3 cup butter or margarine, melted

Combine all ingredients and press firmly in a 9-inch pie plate. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) about 8 minutes or until edge is slightly browned. Cool.

Ham for Thanksgiving

MENU

Glazed Ham Maple Candied Sweet Potatoes
Broccoli with Almonds Scalloped Potatoes
Tossed Salad with Green Goddess Dressing
Pumpkin Fluff Pie

NOT EVERYONE is interested in cooking turkey on Thanksgiving Day and for the people who would prefer another menu, how about ham? Ham makes a very festive entree and we must admit is a lot easier to prepare and cook than a turkey.

Since the type of ham you buy will determine the time and method of cooking, we'll concentrate on some interesting ways to glaze your ham.

Thirty minutes before the end of baking time, remove your ham from the oven, score and stud with whole cloves. Then spread the ham with one of these toppings.

PINEAPPLE GLAZE

3-4 cup canned crushed pineapple
3-4 cup brown sugar

Mix and spread over ham—reserving some to be added in two or three applications (about every 10 minutes. Don't use glaze that has run into drippings, it dulls luster.

MARMALADE GLAZE

1 cup honey
Mix and spread over ham as directed above.
½ cup marmalade

☆ ☆ ☆

SOMEHOW, HAM seems to call for sweet potatoes. And this recipe uses maple syrup and apple cider, which gives an extra zip to the potatoes.

MAPLE CANDIED SWEET POTATOES

6 medium sweet potatoes
½ cup maple syrup
1 tbsp. butter
1 tsp. salt
1 cup apple cider
½ cup water

Boil potatoes in jackets until nearly tender. Peel and slice into buttered baking dish. Heat remaining ingredients to boiling, pour over potatoes and bake in slow oven (300 degrees) one hour. Serves 6.

☆ ☆ ☆

THE MARKETS have beautiful bunches of broccoli right now and it would add color and taste to the meal, especially when crowned with toasted almonds.

BROCCOLI WITH ALMONDS

2½ pounds broccoli
Lemon butter
¼cup toasted almonds

Wash broccoli and split thick heads. Place broccoli in boiling salted water—with ends down and heads out of water. Cook uncovered 10 to 20 minutes. Then place all of broccoli under water and cook 5 minutes longer. Drain. Add salt and pepper and butter, to which lemon juice has been added, and top with toasted almonds.

☆ ☆ ☆

SINCE YOU'LL have no gravy with ham, scalloped potatoes are always nice. But remember to cook them in a flat dish so you will have room to bake them in the oven along with the ham and the sweet potatoes.

SCALLOPED POTATOES

6 medium potatoes
Salt and pepper
2 tbsp. flour
4 tbsp. butter
Milk

Pare potatoes and cut into thin slices. Place in a greased baking dish in three layers, 1-inch deep, sprinkling each layer with salt, pepper and flour and dotting with butter. Add milk until it can be seen between slices of potato, cover and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) until potatoes are tender when pierced with a fork about 1 to 1½ hours. Remove cover for last 15 minutes to brown. Serves 6.

☆ ☆ ☆

JUST THE right salad for this Thanksgiving Day might be the famous Green Goddess Dressing over romaine, escarole and chicory greens.

GREEN GODDESS DRESSING

1 clove garlic
4 anchovy fillets, finely cut
2 tbsp. chopped onion
1 tsp. chopped parsley
1 tsp. chopped tarragon
2 tsp. chopped chives
1 tsp. tarragon vinegar
1½ cups mayonnaise

Cut garlic clove in half; rub cut sides over salad bowl, add anchovy, onion, parsley, chopped tarragon, chives and vinegar. Add mayonnaise, gently mix until thoroughly blended. Serve over greens.

Serve the 'Bird' With a Flourish

The pride of the American poultry family is a perennial favorite on the last Thursday of November. Tradition calls for this "bird" to be served with a flourish. And it usually is. It is also a favorite the next day, because it blends with sauces and vegetables majestically.

The first is a recipe which combines turkey, hearty leftover gravy, and a cheese sauce made in minutes from a mix.

Served atop rice and spinach mounds and garnished with cool, crisp tomato wedges for texture and color contrast, it's a meal in minutes and a treat!

A good salad to serve with this would be slivered avocado on romaine lettuce with French dressing. Have plenty of hot rolls on hand, some tart bread and butter pickles, and golden pumpkin pie for dessert.

Another plan for that leftover turkey gives dignity to the hamburger roll. The elegance comes from the easy-to-use white sauce mix. This, in combination with chicken stock base, makes a fine blend for turkey. The addition of chopped celery makes for crunchy bites.

Tuck the hot turkey mixture into hollowed out hamburger rolls, heat in oven on cookie sheet, top with criss-cross of cheese strips, and in a very few minutes you have a meal de luxe.

Here are the recipes from French's Test Kitchens in Rochester, N.Y.

TURKEY IN CHEESE SAUCE OVER RICE-SPINACH MOUNDS

1 envelope cheese sauce mix
1 cup milk
1 cup turkey gravy
2½ cups diced cooked turkey
1½ cups water
2 tbsp. butter or margarine
½ tsp. salt
½ tsp. lemon peel
1½ cups packaged precooked rice
1 package (10-oz.) frozen chopped spinach
2 tomatoes, cut into wedges

Combine cheese sauce mix and milk in saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Add leftover turkey gravy and diced turkey. Heat until bubbly-hot over low heat.

Meanwhile, bring water, butter, salt, and lemon peel to a boil. Stir in rice; cover; remove from heat. Let stand five minutes. Cook spinach as package directs. Drain thoroughly. Mix spinach with rice. Enough for six portions.

To make mounds, lightly pack one portion of hot rice and spinach into a tall custard cup. Turn out onto serving platter. Using same cup, make 5 more mounds. Garnish with tomato wedges.

Pass turkey in gravy to be spooned over rice and spinach. (Or ring outer edge of platter with rice and spinach. Fill center with turkey in cheese sauce.) Six servings.

HOT TURKEY BUNS

1 envelope white sauce mix
1 cup milk
1 tbsp. chicken flavor stock base
¼ cup finely diced celery
2 cups diced cooked turkey
4 hamburger buns
2 tbsp. melted butter or margarine
4 thin slices American process cheese

Combine white sauce mix, chicken stock base, and celery in a saucepan. Bring to a boil. Add diced turkey. Split hamburger buns. Hollow out center of buns by removing some of the crumbs.

Brush cut surface of buns with melted butter. Spoon a mound of turkey in sauce into each hollow.

Place on a cookie sheet or shallow baking pan. Cut each slice of cheese into four strips. Use two strips to make an "X" on top of each turkey mound. Bake in a 375-degree oven about 15 minutes.

New Way to Enjoy Holiday

There's more to pumpkin than the familiar pie! Here's a delicious Harvest Pudding that takes the rich and mellow "meat" of the pumpkin (canned or cooked), and spices it up delightfully with Brer Rabbit real New Orleans Molasses, and other things nice, then tops it all with "Sugar Crunch" and marshmallows.

KEEP IT COLD

Ground meat should be placed, loosely wrapped, in the coldest part of the refrigerator. If it is not used within 24 hours, it should be wrapped and frozen for storage.

Sandwich spicy gingersnaps or crisp graham crackers together with a filling of any new cheese flavor. Can't be beat for a quick snack or dessert-sandwich with fruit.

HARVEST PUDDING

- ½ cup granulated sugar
- 1-3 cup Brer Rabbit Molasses
- 1-3 cup soft butter or marine
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon nutmeg
- ¼ teaspoon ginger
- ⅛ teaspoon cloves
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 3 eggs, beaten
- 1½ cups light cream or evaporated milk
- 3½ cups canned or cooked pumpkin
- "Sugar Crunch" topping
- 1 cup miniature marshmallows

Thoroughly mix all ingredients, with exception of topping and marshmallows. Pour mixture into a greased two quart casserole and spread top with "Sugar Crunch" topping. Place casserole in a shallow pan of water. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, about 1 hour and 45 minutes. Remove from oven and spread marshmallows over top of pudding. Place under broiler for a minute, or just long enough for marshmallows to brown slightly and start to melt. Serve warm with a spoonful of vanilla ice cream melting on top for sauce. Makes 6-8 servings.

"SUGAR CRUNCH" TOPPING

Mix ½ cup coarsely chopped walnuts, ½ cup cereal crumbs, ½ cup brown sugar, 2 tablespoons Brer Rabbit Molasses and 2 tablespoons butter. Spread over top of pudding before baking.

Pudding may be baked in a pumpkin shell if desired. Suggest shell be lined with foil before adding pudding batter.

Hustle 'n' Bustle Is Half the Fun

Half the fun of holiday meals is all the hustle and bustle involved in pre-preparation. An ideal choice for service to family and friends on such occasions, California turkey comes in a variety of shapes and sizes to suit your individual needs. For instance, there are whole hen turkeys for roasting ranging from 10 to 14 pounds, or toms weighing 18 pounds and up.

In order to be one step ahead of the holiday rush, many homemakers will buy a frozen turkey and store it in their freezer prior to roasting. If this is the case, it's wise to allow plenty of time for defrosting. Turkeys will tend to vary. They may be defrosted in their original wrap either 1 to 3 days (depending on size) on the refrigerator shelf; 10 to 12 hours at room temperature; or 4 to 6 hours in a pan under cold running water (in emergency).

A recent innovation in packaging turkeys for the market has been referred to as "butter balling" which simply means that the legs have been tucked under the bridge of skin located just under the breast bone. This makes for more compact storage, plus easier preparation for roasting. All you do is stuff body cavities loosely, then fit the legs back in original position under bridge of skin. This type of closure eliminates the need for sewing, trussing, or skewers (except, of course, for neck closure and fastening wings to body).

After turkey has been stuffed with Cashew dressing, a delicious variation prepared from an all purpose dressing mix you may have a small amount left over. Or, you may decide to make an extra recipe for second servings. To heat, use an ice cream scoop for placing mounds of prepared dressing in a cupcake pan. Garnish with cashews and let bake in oven with turkey during last 45 minutes of roasting period. Children and grown-ups alike, will enjoy sampling this tasty dressing in a new shape, plus there's enough to "feed a crowd." (See recipes below.)

California Roas Turkey With Cashew Dressing

Allow turkey, if frozen, to thaw completely. Wash and dry bird. Rub inside cavity of turkey generously with seasoned salt before stuffing. Prepare, then spoon cashew dressing lightly into neck cavity. Smooth neck skin over stuffing; fasten to back of bird with skewers. Fill main body cavity next (do not pack as stuffing will expand while cooking). If turkey is the "tucked" type simply fit the legs into original position under bridge of skin (the crosswise cut just below the breastbone) or fastening opening with skewers. Brush entire bird with shortening, oil, butter or margarine, and cover with a loose sheet of aluminum foil (Aloca wrap) to keep moisture in and prevent overbrowning. Roast at a low temperature (300-325 degrees) according to a reliable roasting chart. If meat thermometer is used, it should read 180 degrees, or be at point designated for poultry. Otherwise, test for doness by moving the drumstick up and down Turkey is done if the leg joint gives readily or breaks.

Cashew Dressing

- 2 6½-ounce bags Melba toasted all purpose dressing
- ½ cup melted butter or margarine
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1 cup chopped cashews
- ¼ cup minced parsley
- 1 cup water or broth

Empty dressing into mixing bowl. Saute celery in melted butter or margaine until soft, but not brown. Pour over dressing and add cashews, parsley and liquid. Blend well, but lightly. Stuff loosely into turkey. Skewer neck skin to back and tuck legs under bridge of skin above tail. Scoop remaining dressing into greased muffin cups, adding more liquid if necessary. Bake along with turkey during last 45 minutes.

Turkey Partner—Potatoes Au Gratin

Turkey hot or turkey cold, a casserole of Potatoes au Gratin is the perfect partner — fine-flavored Idaho potatoes elegant in a rich white sauce, plain or with the nip of sharp Cheddar cheese, butter-crumb-topped, baked to a delicate brown. This dish along with the Royal Bird, chilled cranberry juice, a colorful molded salad makes a perfect sitdown or a buffet meal.

How To Have Perfect Potatoes Au Gratin

1. Choose your potatoes: you will want the variety which cooks up mealy and dry, the kind you desire for baking, such as the full-of-flavor Idaho-grown Russets. No place, except in potato salad, does a soapy "boiled" potato show its nature by way of texture and taste as it does in creamed potatoes, the basis of this dish.

2. Amount to cook: 4 cups diced potatoes in sauce will make 6 servings. Cook 6 to 8 scrubbed medium "Idahos" in their jackets in small amount of water in covered kettle, about 45 minutes. Test for doneness with a thin skewer. When almost tender, pour off water, shake kettle over low heat to dry off any remaining water. When cool enough to handle, peel off skins and cut potatoes lengthwise into finger-size strips, crosswise to form even-size cubes. Whether to be used in a sauce or in salad, warm potatoes take on the sauce or dressing flavor much better than do cold.

3. Sauce with care: allow ½ cup medium white sauce for each cup diced potatoes. For the 2 cups sauce needed, melt 4 tablespoons butter in heavy saucepan over low heat or in double boiler top over boiling water. Add 4 tablespoons flour, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper. Stir until smooth, giving time to cook a little. Add slowly 2 cups milk, stirring all the while until sauce is thickened and smooth. Right here, for "Delmonico Potatoes" stir into hot sauce 2 cups shredded sharp-aged Cheddar cheese.

4. Finishing off: stir warm diced potatoes into hot sauce; place in casserole. Top with fine dry bread crumbs or with soft crumbs from fresh bread, and dots of butter. Or use corn flakes, slightly crushed or crisp butter wafers, coarsely crumbled. Sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese if desired. Bake in a 400 degree F. (moderately hot) oven for 20 minutes or more, longer if the dish is "made yesterday" and refrigerated. Potatoes should be hot through and top lightly browned. Serve piping-hot.

Mince Pie with Cheese Crust

Sift 1½ cups flour and ½ tsp salt; cut in ⅓ cup shortening. Add ½ cup shredded processed American cheese, and toss with fork to blend. Sprinkle with cold water (about 2 TBS) and mix with fork until dry ingredients are moistened. Press into a ball. On floured board, roll ⅔ of dough to ⅛ in. thickness; press into 9 in. pie-pan. Fill 4 cups prepared mincemeat. Roll remaining dough and cut in strips ½ in. wide. Arrange on pie, lattice fashion. Crimp edges of crust with fingers. Bake in 400° oven 20 minutes or until lightly browned.

New Turkey Cookery Procedures and Timetables

Home economists concerned with the formation of turkey cookery information recently gathered in Chicago to corrolate their thinking on turkey timetables and preparation procedures. The Turkey Cookery seminar was conducted by the Poultry and Egg National board and was attended by home economists from the California Turkey Advisory board, the USDA and packers of nationally distributed turkeys.

Cooking procedures and timetables received the large share of the home economists' attention at the all-day session at which a dozen turkeys were roasted and judged. Attention was centered on the open pan roasting method, felt by all to give the consumer the best finished product, with the least among of time and effort.

Placing the turkey, stuffed or unstuffed, on a rack in a shallow open pan is preparatory to roasting in a 325 degree Faherheit oven. A loose covering of aluminum foil is placed over the turkey when cooking is half to two-thirds completed, to prevent increased browning.

All home economists present agreed that today's turkeys, younger and more tender than ever before, do not need the long cooking times of a few years ago. Today's turkeys, improved by breeding and feeding changes, need only be roasted to an internal temperature of 185 degrees Fahrenheit. It was agreed that the meat thermometer was the best test for doneness. Proper placing of the thermometer is in the thickest portion of the inside thigh muscle, being careful not to touch bone.

Placing the aluminum foil covering over the turkey when partially roasted gives the heat a chance to penetrate the bird quickly cutting down total cooking time considerably. The foil covering then keeps the heat in, retards excessive browning and keeps the turkey meat moist and juicy.

It should be remembered that a timetable is merely a guide to total roasting time. Differences in individual birds may necessitate increasing or decreasing cooking times slightly. Directions for operation and a timetable follow:

Turkeys of any size may be roasted. Correct roasting is slow cooking by dry heat on a rack in an open pan. It requires no water, no basting, no cover and no searing. Always roast turkey done in one continuous cooking period.

Low temperatures assure better flavor and appearance, less shrinkage and less loss of juices.

A shallow, open pan allows the heat to circulate around the bird, roasting it evenly. A rack at least ½ inch high raises the bird off the bottom of the pan, keeping it out of the juices.

Purchased Ready-to-Cook Weight	Oven Temperature	Interior Temperature	Guide to Total Roasting Time
6 to 8 lbs.	325 F	185 F	2-2½hours
8 to 12 lbs.	325 F	185 F	2½-3 hours
12 to 16 lbs.	325 F	185 F	3-3¾ hours
16 to 20 lbs.	325 F	185 F	3¾-4½hours
20 to 24 lbs.	325 F	185 F	4½-5½ hours

For best results, follow these simple steps:

1. Preheat oven to 325 degrees Fahrenheit (slow).
2. Rinse bird with cold water, drain and pat dry. Rub cavity of bird lightly with salt, if desired. Do not salt if stuffed.
3. Fill wishbone area (neck) with stuffing, if used. Fasten neck skin to back with skewer. Fill cavity lightly, if stuffing is used. Push drumsticks under band of skin at tail, if present; or tie them to tail.
4. Place turkey on rack in shallow roasting pan, breast side up. Brush skin with fat. If a roast meat thermometer is to be used, insert it so that the bulb is in the center of the inside thigh muscle or the thickest part of the breast meat. Be sure that the bulb does not touch bone.
5. Place in preheated oven. If desired, baste or brush occasionally with pan drippings — especially any dry areas. When turkey is two-thirds done, cut cord or band of skin at drumsticks. Place a loose covering of aluminum foil over the turkey to prevent excessive browning. Continue roasting until done.
6. To test doneness, a roast meat thermometer placed in the center of the inside thigh muscle or the thickest part of the breast muscle should register approximately 185 degrees Fahrenheit. If stuffing is used, it should register 165 degrees Fahrenheit at the same time. Turkey is done when thickest part of drumstick feels very soft when pressed between protected fingers.

Give Thanks For Turkey

The juicy, golden-brown turkey on the holiday table is good reason to give thanks for the abundance of the season. With the addition of Ac'cent monosodium glutamate, your bird can be a paragon of good flavor. Ac'cent brings out all the sweet, delicate taste of the meat and makes it seem juicier, too. Shake it on the skin and inside the cavities—and be sure to use it in the stuffing and gravy, too. Allow about one-half pound ready-to-cook turkey per serving when purchasing the bird—and allow extra weight for seconds, sandwiches, and the incomparable turkey hash.

Holiday Turkey

Wash turkey in cold running water. Pat inside dry with paper towels; leave outside moist. Use ½ teaspoon Ac'cent per pound of turkey ready to stuff. Set aside half the total amount for the dressing and gravy; divide the remainder between skin and body cavities. Sprinkle cavities also with salt and pepper. Stuff turkey. Fasten neck skin to body with skewer. Push legs under band of skin at tail, or tie them to tail. Place turkey, breast side up, on rack in shallow open roasting pan. If desired, cover with a loose covering or "tent" of aluminum foil. Roast turkey in a slow oven (325°F.), according to weight. Cook the bird 3½ to 4 hours for a 6 to 8-pound turkey; 4 to 4½ hours for an 8 to 12-pound bird; 4½ to 5½ hours for a 12 to 16-pound bird; 5½ to 6½ hours for a 16 to 20-pound bird; 6½ to 7 hours for a 20 to 24-pound bird.

Brazil Nuts In Treasured Cake

Fruit cake recipes are coming from treasured files these days in preparation for holiday baking. Here, a white fruit cake . . . reminiscent of pound cake and enhanced with Brazil nuts and preserved fruits . . . is both festive and delicious.

Have the Brazil nuts shelled ahead of baking time to speed up the cake assembly job. For speedy shelling, put in-shell Brazil nuts in the freezer section of the refrigerator or in a food freezer for a couple of hours or overnight. When the nuts are frozen, they can be easily cracked.

White Brazil Nut Fruit Cake

- 1 cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 5 eggs
- 1½ teaspoons grated lemon rind
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour, divided
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 2 cups coarsely chopped Brazil nuts
- 1½ cups mixed candied fruit
- 1½ cups candied cherries
- 1 cup white raisins

Cream shortening; gradually add sugar, creaming thoroughly. Beat in eggs one at a time; blend until smooth. Stir in lemon rind and juice. Sift together 2 cups of the flour, baking powder and salt. Gradually stir into creamed mixture. Toss Brazil nuts and fruit in remaining ½ cup flour; fold into batter. Turn into 2 greased and wax paper-lined 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pans or one 10-inch tube pan. Bake in slow oven (300°F.) 1½ hours. Yield: 2 loaf cakes.

Folger's

Folger's regular, drip or fine. Same hit-the-spot flavor so welcome for coffee breaks, to top off that big, beautiful meal.

Don Obertone Presents 'Banjo in Concert'

DON OBERTONE

DON OBERTONE, the gent who took the "ban" out of "banjo," will be featured in a Banjo Concert on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 8, in the Hillsdale High School at 2 p.m. This event should attract both young and old. Billed as the "World's Greatest Banjoist," Don, in my book of music, well qualifies. Tickets for this San Mateo "scoop" are $2.50; under 16, $1.54. Tickets are available at Sherman, Clay Box Office at Hillsdale; San Mateo Book Store, 132 East Third Avenue, and Big Al's Gashouse, where Mr. Obertone was first introduced to Peninsula music lovers . . . Bill Denson of the Hillsdale Farmers Market reports a world of good eating in the already-holiday atmosphere. Where else but the Farmers Market can you find 14 International restaurants from which to select your breakfast, luncheon or dinner. Open every day from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. . . . New Year's Eve dinner at the Cafe del Rio in Almaden is by reservation only. You'll be sorry if you fail to make one . . . Always on the lookout for something different, I found just that at the China Garden restaurant. This is a family operation where Chinese foods are featured . . .

THERE'S NOTHING MORE INVITING than Sunday morning brunch or breakfast at Frank Torres Montara Beach Resort. The ocean view here, rain or shine, is extraordinary . . . . The Andrews Sisters at the Nugget in Sparks (East Reno), Nevada, swing you down memory lane with their renditions of "Beer Barrel Polka," "Rum and Coca Cola," and many other oldies, as well as pop tunes of the day . . . . Was a pleasure talking to George Mardikian, Wednesday afternoon, and finding out that he's now able to slip away from his St. Helena ranch to spend a little time at his Omar Khayyam's office desk. However, Mr. Mardikian takes no appointments, but will soon be back in regular business stride . . . Nick Gust believes in conserving space. After seeing his Pacifica Sea Breeze Motel, I'm sure of it. Nick converted some extra garage space into a few more motel units. "Better to have folks parked in the motel than just a car parked in a garage," smiled Nick . . .

Frank Torres

MILT TONINI, the "voice" of Princeton by the Sea, has another of his fun parties scheduled for his Princeton Inn on November 22. It's a Thanksgiving affair — and you can look for anything from a turkey shoot to a turkey trot to take place . . . . The Sky Deck continues to do a right nice business. Chef Tommy Yee can take a well-deserved bow for keeping it that way . . . An all-out Thanksgiving Day dinner is planned at the Mountain View Caravan Inn — three dining rooms will be available. The Camel Room will serve a family-style $2.25 special, as usual; Persian Room menu is highlighted with a full course dinner, including a champagne cocktail; Talisman Room will feature a selective buffet. Breakfast will also be served from 6 a.m. to noon. Reservations are suggested .

Milt Tonini

NICK FINOCCHIO is wearing a pre-holiday smile that means reservations for his five New Tivoli banquet rooms are coming in fast. This restaurant has been a San Francisco dine out tradition for over 50 years — and the Finocchio family has operated it since opening day . . . Ella Fitzgerald, considered one of the world's greatest female vocalists, is back at the Fairmont Hotel, where she has reigned "queen" for many years. This was the scene of her first triumphant hotel engagement. Ella will appear in the Venetian Room through December 4 . . . It's "fight talk" time again at Sil Oliva's Exposition Fish Grotto — with Sil "sparring" with the thought that young Clay just might upset Sonny Liston. No "decisions" have been made as to the outcome . . . . Nice to report: Keith Williamson's Burlingame Chicken and Steak House had folks standing outside the door waiting for tables, Monday evening. And in this day and business age that's quite a feat . . . . Late flash from Hotel Claremont: Round trip buses

Nick Finocchio

AL SIMON and his orchestra, who are now playing the cocktail and dinner dance music at the Hotel Claremont, is one of the most popular groups in the Bay Area. They just finished a long run at the Mark Hopkins Hotel . . . The newlywed Perc Orecks (he's a big jewelry and home appliance tycoon) celebrated their third anniversary with a gala dinner party at Lew Lehr's—third WEEK, that is . . . The Characters, current headliners at the Galaxie on SF's Broadway, are breaking all records. They are undoubtedly the funniest group we've seen in ages, which is why they are in hugc demand in Vegas, Reno and Tahoe . . . Barney O'Malia has a "winning" combination at his Lake Tahoe (South Shore), Nevada, Barney's Club: One dollar cash with clip-out coupon, and free coffee served 24 hours a day in the club's new upper level "O'Houlihan's Hideout."

Al Simon

PHIL RAUSCHER has his International Inn banquet rooms ready and available for your holiday yearend parties and banquets. This is a pop spot for office get-togethers . . . . Roger Smith, star of TV's "77 Sunset Strip," was host at a birthday party at Finocchio's. The novelty of the occasion being that it was his own birthday and instead of receiving gifts, as is customary, he insisted on giving them to some 15 of his TV associates. Everything was "on him" — including a feast after the show . . . . The traditional New Year's Eve Dinner-Dancer will be held at the Mural Room of St. Francis Hotel from 8:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m., with dancing to the music of Albert White and his orchestra. At midnight, an ice parade will tour the Mural Room and other public rooms on the Lobby Floor of the hotel. (Staff members of the hotel carrying ice carvings spelling out "Happy New Year, 1964) . . . Walter's is enjoying its greatest popularity since opening several months ago. Introduction of bar drinks at 50 cents until 6 p.m., and 65 cents thereafter. The other new "specialty of the house": Golden Fried Chicken Dinner. Served in a luxury atmosphere with Walter's famous hospitality. Open daily from 12 noon; Sundays at 4 p.m. Closed Mondays.

ENRICO ROMANO, long recognized as the pizza king of Pacifica, has completely revamped his Romano's restaurant menu—adding not only full course Italian dinners, but broiled steaks, and seafood. Today, Romano's menu is comparable to any leading restaurants. Prices are well in line with the average family budget. Pizza? Of course. All food served here is also prepared to take out . . . The Sheraton-Villa Motor Inn in San Mateo will soon open an elegant, new French dining room. Extensive redecorating will transform the dining room into a French Quarter atmosphere accented by colorful Parisian murals, deep carpeting, French costumes and especially authentic Cordon Bleu menu of French culinary delights. Chef Arnold Bischoff, trained in Swiss hotel schools and with a distinguished record in Europe's and America's most famous hotels.

An Oyster Stuffing for Holiday Bird

One of the rich American traditions which has become a part of family living is the gathering of the clan at Thanksgiving or Christmas for a warm reunion and the traditional holiday meal with all the trimmings. The subtle combination of crisp air, a warming fire, happy sounds of reunion, and complete kitchen confusion create a certain excitement which cannot be duplicated.

Through the years, the holiday bird with stuffing has become a part of this tradition, and each section of the country has a stuffing recipe native to its area This year, fresh from the U. S. Bureau of Commercial Fisheries' Test Kitchens come three savory seafood stuffings to bring the tang-o-the-sea to your festive table and find favor with the most fastidious.

OYSTER STUFFING

1 can (12 ounces) shucked oysters, fresh or frozen
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped onion
¼ cup melted fat or oil
6 cups of soft bread cubes
1 egg, beaten
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon poultry seasoning
Dash pepper

Thaw frozen oysters. Drain oysters and chop coarsely. Cook celery and onion in fat until tender; stirring occasionally. Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Makes about 4 cups of stuffing, enough for a 4-pound ready-to-cook bird.

SCALLOP STUFFING

½ pound scallops, fresh or frozen
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped onion
¼ cup melted fat or oil
6 cups soft bread cubes
1 egg, beaten
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ teaspoon poultry seasoning
Dash pepper

Thaw frozen scallops. Rinse with cold water to remove any shell particles. Chop scallops. Cook celery, onion, and scallops in fat until vegetables are tender; stirring occasionally. Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Makes about 4 cups of stuffing, enough for a 4-pound ready-to-cook bird.

SHRIMP STUFFING

½ pound shrimp, fresh or frozen
¼ cup chopped onion
¼ cup melted fat or oil
1 egg, beaten
2 tablespoons milk
6 cups soft bread cubes
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon thyme
Dash pepper

Thaw frozen shrimp. Peel shrimp and remove sand veins. Wash shrimp and cut into small pieces. Cook onion and shrimp in fat until onion is tender; stirring occasionally. Combine egg and milk. Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Makes about 4 cups of stuffing, enough for a 4-pound ready-to-cook bird.

STUFFING FOR TURKEY

For 5-9 pound turkey—2 times stuffing recipe.
For 10-15 pound turkey — 3 times stuffing recipe.
For 16-20 pound turkey — 4 times stuffing recipe.
For 21-25 pound turkey — 5 times stuffing recipe.

They'll Like Milk Drinks

Snow enthusiasts in from the slopes or just off the ice of the skating rink will welcome hot or cold nourishing milk drinks. And so will a great many other people.

HOT EGGNOG

For 4 generous servings: Separate four eggs. Beat yolks until lemon-colored; add two tablespoons sugar. Beat egg whites stiff; add two tablespoons sugar slowly, beating constantly.

Pour four cups scalded milk slowly over egg yolks, stirring constantly. Bring to simmering point slowly, stirring constantly.

Stir milk into egg whites; add one teaspoon vanilla or rum extract and a few grains of salt.

Pour from prettiest pitcher or ladle from warmed bowl. To make it really fancy, garnish with whipped cream and a dash of nutmeg.

HONEY-ORANGE PUNCH

Four six generous servings, combine one can frozen orange juice (diluted according to directions), three cups milk, ½ cup California honey and ⅛ teaspoon salt in blender or mixer. Serve cold.

BROWN BOOSTER

For four servings add four teaspoons dark brown sugar and two teaspoons molasses to one quart milk; stir until well blended. Heat just to drinking temperature or serve cold. Sprinkle with nutmeg.

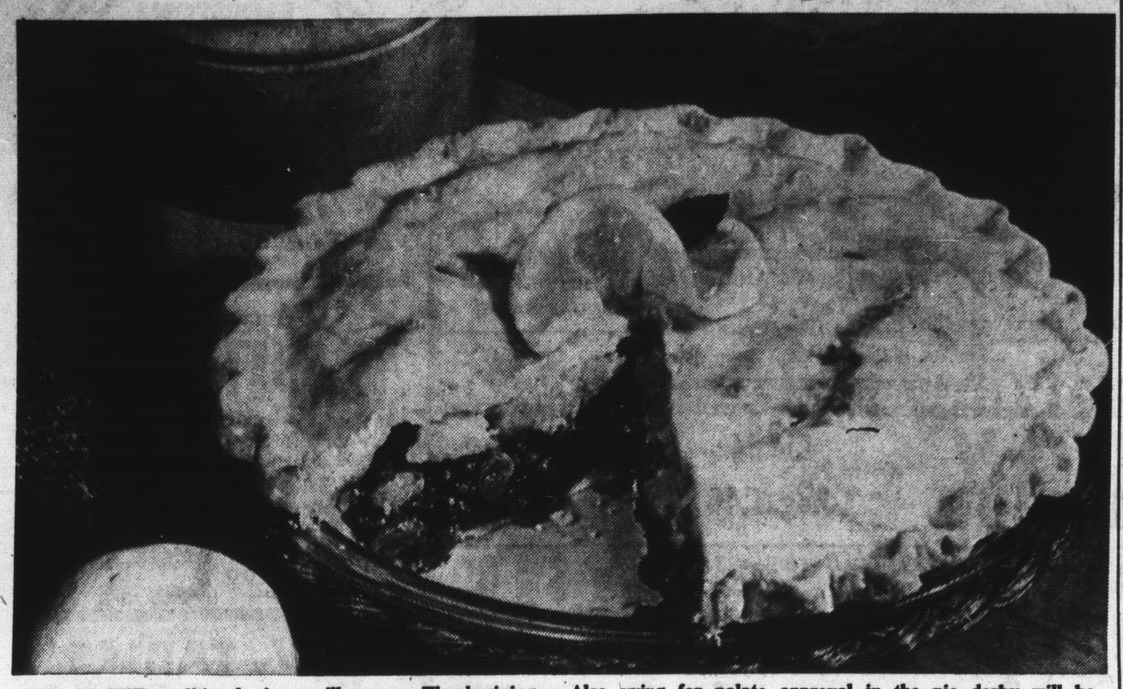
A Pie for Thanksgiving



ONE OF THE traditional pies you'll see on Thanksgiving dinner tables next week is raisin pie, shown here with a slice of orange and a decorative leaf on top of the crust.

Also vying for palate approval in the pie derby will be pumpkin, mince and a variety of fruit pies.

Squares of Fruit Cake Are Offered

One sign of a good cook is pride in her fruit cake. Often she will give her fruit cake to valued friends as a token of special friendship.

But, brides and beginning cooks can now take heart.

No-fail fruit cake squares, easy, even for the inexperienced, have been developed by the Liberty Cherry and Fruit company home economists.

This cake is not solid as the regular cake but is brimmng glace fruit and nuts.

It's unique ingredient of egg nog helps to bring out the rich flavor of the fruit and nuts.

Now even the brides may rate the compliment "that this is better than Mother used to bake."

FRUIT CAKE SQUARES

½ pound glace mixed fruit
¼ pound glace red and green pineapple
¼ pound pecan piece
¼ pound walnut pieces
1 cup sifted flour
1 cup butter
2 cups sugar
4 eggs
2 cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup egg nog

Combine fruits and nuts. Add the 1 cup flour; mix lightly. Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy.

Beat in eggs one at a time, mixing well. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with egg nog; mix until well blended.

Stir in fruit and nut mixture. Turn into well greased and lightly floured 13x9x2-inch pan. Bake at 300 degrees for 1 hour 45 minutes or until done. Cool. ut into squares. Makes 24 servings.

Fluffy Icing Is Delight

The holiday season is the one time when you are really "expected" to bake. Cakes, cookies and visions of sugar plums dance in the heds of your children and husband.

An exceptionally fine frosting recipe has been created by home economists from Shedd-Bartush Foods Inc. for all types of cakes and cupcakes.

Even those who are not concerned about cholesterol intake will delight in this fluffy, always creamy frosting.

FLUFFY VANILLA FROSTING

3 tablespoons flour
¾ cup water
¾ cup safflower margarine
¾ cup granulated sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons vanilla

Cook flour and water together until mixture forms thick paste. Cool. Beat margarine, sugar, salt and vanilla together until very light in color.

Add cooled paste to mixture and beat until light and fluffy. Chill for 30 minutes before spreading. Spread on cake or cupcakes. Sufficient frosting for a 9-inch layered cake or about 2 dozen cupcakes.

WHEREAS, said real property is not needed for school classroom buildings by said school district, and it appears to be in the best interest of said school district to sell said property to the highest bidder, subject to terms and conditions hereinafter specified, pursuant to the provisions of Sections 16051 et seq. of the Education Code of the State of California:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY FOUND, DETERMINED AND ORDERED as follows:

1. The real property hereinabove described is no longer needed for school classroom buildings and it is the intention of this Board to sell said real property to the highest bidder, for cash, and subject to terms and conditions hereinafter specified, pursuant to the provisions of Sections 16051 et seq. of the Education Code of the State of California;

2. Said property shall be sold as a unit for cash at a minimum price of not less than $11,750.00, subject to all liens and encumbrances of record and subject to all conditions specified in the deed of conveyance as hereinafter mentioned. No commission will be paid to any real estate broker for obtaining any proposal to purchase said property.

3. The school district will execute a grant deed to the successful bidder, which deed shall convey to the successful bidder title to the property hereinabove mentioned in fee simple, but subject to the following condition: "Said property shall be used by the grantee, his heirs, successors, and assigns, for single family or multiple family dwelling purposes only, and in the event said property shall be used for any purpose other than single family or multiple family dwellings as aforesaid, immediately thereupon, all right, title and interest of grantee, his heirs, successors and assigns in said property shall cease and terminate, and title in fee simple to said property shall automatically revert to school district. It is specifically understood and provided herein that the use of said property for other than single family or multiple family dwelling purposes by grantee, his heirs, successors and assigns, shall, of itself, automatically and immediately terminate all right, title and interest of grantee, his heirs, successors, and assigns in said property, and shall automatically and immediately re-vest title to said property in school district, and school district shall NOT be obliged or required to re-enter said property, give notice of termination, or take any action whatsoever to cause title to said property to re-vest in school district as aforesaid."

4. The school district reserves the right to reject all bids to purchase the property and to withdraw the same from sale.

5. At 8:00 o'clock P.M. of MONDAY the 25th day of NOVEMBER, 1963, at the regular meeting place of this board, 375 So. Mayfair, Daly City, California, this board will hold a public meeting at which sealed proposals to purchase the property hereinabove described will be received and considered;

6. The Clerk of this Board is hereby directed to cause copies of this resolution, signed by not less than two-thirds of the members of this board, to be posted in three public places in the school district for not less than 15 days before the date set for the receiving of proposals to purchase said property, and to cause a copy of this resolution to be published not less than once a week for three successive weeks before said date in SAN MATEO POST, a newspaper of general circulation published in the County of San Mateo.

LEGAL NOTICES

RESOLUTION NO. 19216
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS,
COUNTY OF SAN MATEO,
STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

RESOLUTION DECLARING INTENTION TO ABANDON A PORTION OF SENTINEL ROCK ROAD

RESOLVED, by the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California, that

WHEREAS, the County Engineer of the County of San Mateo has requested the abandonment of the hereinafter described Portion of Sentinel Rock Road; and

WHEREAS, it is desirable to abandon said Portion of Sentinel Rock Road; and

WHEREAS, it is the intention of this Board to hold a public hearing on the proposition of abandoning said Portion of Sentinel Rock Road, and to hear evidence offered by any party interested therein:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY DETERMINED AND ORDERED as follows:

1. The public interest, convenience and necessity demand and it is the intention of the Board to abandon a Portion of Sentinel Rock Road, described as follows:

All that certain real property situated in the County of San Mateo, State of California, described as follows:

Beginning at the intersection of the centerline of the County Road from San Mateo to Half Moon Bay, known as Sentinel Rock Road, and the Northerly boundary of that parcel of land deeded to the Crystal Springs Development Co. by the Spring Valley Co. Ltd., said deed being dated June 17, 1946 and recorded June 26, 1946 in Book 1292 of Official Records of said County at Page 26; thence running along said boundary line North 82° 26' East 31.63 feet to the true point of beginning of this description; thence North 6° 40' 32" East 272.57 feet; thence North 15° 27' 49" West 401.10 feet to a point on the Easterly line of said County Road; thence along said line South 18° 53' 50" East 176.86 feet, South 17° 52' East 229.04 feet, and South 10° 53' West 276.96 feet to the true point of beginning; excepting, there shall be reserved for any public utilities now located in the portion of said road being abandoned, easements for said public utilities which shall be known as Public Utility Easements.

Containing 0.165 acres more or less.

2. TUESDAY, the 3rd day of DECEMBER, 1963, at 10:00 o'clock A.M. is hereby designated as the time when a hearing will be held at the Hall of Justice and Records, Redwood City, California, in the Chambers of this Board, at which time and place all evidence offered by any party interested in said abandonment will be heard and considered.

3. The Clerk of this Board is directed to give notice of said hearing by having a copy of this Resolution published in the SAN MATEO POST, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the County of San Mateo, for two successive weeks prior to said hearing, and to have a copy thereof posted in the portion of Sentinel Rock Road proposed to be abandoned. Affidavit of such publication and posting shall be obtained and placed on file.
